Reapportionment of seats in the legislature, which is sure to bounce up during the next session of the lawmakers, may be looked upon with a sympathetic eye—even by a few Republicans.

Victor A. Knox, speaker of the house, says "legislators should look at the situation realistically. There has been a great influx of population during the last decade into metropolitan areas. There should be some reapportionment."

He says the A. F. of L. plan, which seeks a way to force obedience to the present constitutional provision on reapportionment each ten years, should be studied carefully.

This plan contains the costly clause which would prevent domination of the legislature by Detroit. This clause gives a house seat to any county with slightly more than one-hundredth of the total state population.

But the out-state lawmakers still shudder at the thought of reapportionment. Any attempt to bring it up will be fought tooth and nail by many.

Bible Comment:

Endurance Is Test For Military Men, Soldiers of Christ

ENDURANCE is the great, ultimate mark of the true and effective soldier. His long process of training is to make him hard of muscle and sound of limb physically. It is also to make him strong and strong spiritually. It is to make him into a dedicated and efficient fighting machine.

While a Christian soldier is his countrymen that not only soldiers should bear the brunt of war and the defense of their land, but that "blood, sweat and tears" would have to be endured by the civilians for the country to pull through.

So it is today that not only are the troops in Korea suffering the agonies described in the English Prime Minister's words, but vast numbers of our fellow-Christians throughout the world are also suffering cruel persecutions in many different ways as a result of this war.

But these Christians have for the most part been proving that they have that peculiar hardness that makes a good soldier, either for the military or for Christ.

Christ's great disciple, Paul, in offering advice to the runaway slave, Timothy, begged the latter to "endure hardness" as might be expected of a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

Paul argued to Timothy that the earthly soldier serves under human—and therefore imperfect—commanders. The decisions of the Divine Commander, however, said Paul, can be nothing else but wisely planned and delivered with a compassionate understanding of man's limitations, his weaknesses.

And to be good soldiers of Christ we must obey willingly, for we will not be forced to obey. We must accept the small tribulations that come our way uncomplainingly, and on our own. We must not be great disappointments and tragedies with shoulders back, chin out, and a large heart. Timothy was so advised by Paul, perhaps the greatest of all Christ's followers.

MRS. TRUMAN

Mrs. Truman makes no bones about her desire to turn the White House over to new tenants.

At a reception the other day, the first lady confided to a friend: "This is a terrible life. We don't have any privacy at all. If I want to go across the hall to see the President or Margaret, I have to get dressed up. I can't just slip a kimono on, for you never know who you'll find in the hall. I'll be glad when we get back to Independence and can live like human beings."

Mrs. Truman said she thought the government should provide private living quarters away from the White House for the first family. She was referring, of course, to the fact that Secret Service vigilance has been heightened since the attempt on the President's life so that guards are on every floor of Blair House.

THE TAFT BROTHERS

Taft forces are so sore at brother Charles Taft for announcing for Governor of Ohio that they may put general Congressman George Bender, a GOP stalwart, into the Republican primary in Ohio to run against brother Charles.

There are several reasons for this row over the younger member of the Taft family. Primarily, Bob Taft forces are sore because two Tafts in a political race cause confusion and make the public think one family is out to dominate the state.

Second, brother Charles has not been regular. He was a friend of Franklin Roosevelt, voted for him a couple of times and served under him in the Federal Security Administration and later in the State department during the war. Charles also held the regular Republicans in Cincinnati where he has been a member of the city council and helped elect a Democratic mayor, Albert Cass.

General Douglas MacArthur will visit Lansing and Detroit next spring, preferably at conclusion of the 1952 legislative session. The Michigan Press Association, Inc., may sponsor a dinner in cooperation with a legislative joint committee providing the date coincides with a regular association meeting.

Governor Williams wants a $30,000,000 appropriation for mental hospital construction. He proposes two new mental hospitals. Locations for the hospitals have not been suggested. Money would come from the $65,000,000 bond issue approved a year ago.

Incidentally, you may get a card from the governor this Christmas. He has a mailing list of more than 5,000.

The price of politics is up. One estimate of the 1952 election says more than $1,250,000 will be spent to garner Michigan votes. The amount includes expenditures of both major parties.

Col. Herbert Layle, ousted quartermaster general of the Michigan National Guard, will be defended by the man who appointed him, Kim Sigler, who as governor in 1947.

Christmas Cantata

"THE CHRIST CHILD" by Hawley

Will Be Presented By
The Senior Choir of Salem Evangelical & Reformed Church
December 16, 1951 8:00 O'clock

This Cantata is an excellent means of orientation for the Christmas Season. The Composer adheres strictly to the Scriptural account of the "Advent of our Saviour, which is Christ the Lord."

In composition Hawley has achieved great musical charm and inspiration in the varied solo and mixed quartet parts. These parts will be sung by Mrs. Edythe Butcher, guest soloist of Ferndale, and members of the Salem Choir: Mrs. Alice Foster, Mrs. Lenore Gildemister, Ivar Anderson, and Richard Pauline.

Preceding the Cantata, Mrs. Thelma Addington, Organist of Salem Church, will play a brief organ recital.

The Cantata will be presented in the Sanctuary of Salem Church, Oakland at Grand River.
