

'Americana' Is Theme

"Americana" is the theme for the Plymouth Symphony's pop concert on Saturday, May 13, at 8:00 p.m. in the Central School gymnasium, Main and Church Streets, Plymouth.

Tickets for the concert sponsored by the Plymouth Symphony League are available at the Record and Tape Center, 770 Penniman, Plymouth, and will be on sale at the door. Decorations and arrangements are being handled by the Vivace League.

TWO SOLOISTS will be featured along with "Maples" by Rogers and Goldman, "A Civil War Fantasy" by Bilk and "The Pumpkin-Eaters Little Fugue" by McBride.

The soloists are Mrs. Charles Heidt, a soprano, and George Marsh, violinist.

Mrs. Heidt, a Plymouth resident, will sing selections from "Porgy and Bess" by George Gershwin. A graduate of Michigan State University, Mrs. Heidt earned a bachelor's degree in music and teaches at Brookside School, Cranbrook. She is a soloist in the choir of the First United Methodist Church in Plymouth and active in community organizations.

Marsh, 17, of Ann Arbor will play "Tzigane" by Ravel. A member of the symphony, Marsh has played violin for 11 years and recently was a winner in the Young Musicians Competition held by the Lima (Ohio) Symphony.

Will-O-Way Schedules 2 Sessions

BLOOMFIELD HILLS Registration for special accelerated four-week summer courses is now open at Will-O-Way Theater, 775 W. Long Lake.

Two separate terms are being offered, one in July and one in August.

Competitive scholarships are offered for qualified students. Brochures are available from the theater.

A choice of electives includes characterization and movement, improvisation, speech and diction, make-up, stagecraft and television technique.

Three types of play production courses are also available: contemporary scene studies, psychology of performing and classic scene studies.

Young playwrights have an opportunity to have their material performed and young directors will direct scene studies or experimental scripts.

New students will have an opportunity to audition for Will-O-Way's forthcoming productions.

Will-O-Way is approved by the Michigan State Board of Education as a trade school of the arts. Students may obtain junior, senior and master certificates.

STUDENTS in the art courses are from all over Oakland and Wayne counties. Assisting in preparing the show are Sisters Benedicta Mary, RSM, and Sister Mary Kevin, RSM.
