Romantic Art Is Featured

ANN ARBOR
An exhibition, entitled "Art and the Excited Spirit: America in the Romantic Period" will be on display at the University of Michigan Museum of Art through May 14. The exhibit is supported by a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts and includes paintings, drawings, sculpture, prints, photographs and related materials from the mid-1800s.

Girard-Terrill Vows Spoken

Beverly Ruth Terrill became the bride of Mark Stephen Girard in an April 8 ceremony in Orchard United Methodist Church in Farmington. The Rev. Eric S. Hammar officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Terrill of Muirland Avenue, Farmington. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Girard of Bloomfield Hills are the bridegroom's parents.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE, by her father, the bride wore a gown of white sate with charmingly lace trimming the bodice and sleeves. Matching lace edged the mantilla veil that fell from a Juliet cap, and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses, lily mums, baby's breath and ivy. Elizabeth Bohlsen of Allendale, Mich., was matron of honor. Her gown had a grass green skirt and beige crepe bodice, and her flowers were yellow and white daisies and carnations. Leslie Terrill of Detroit, sister-in-law of the bride, and Judith Alderson of Lansing were bridesmaids. The junior bridesmaids were Kimberly Terrill of Farmington, the bride's sister, and Cheryl Girard of Warren, the bridegroom's niece.

MRS. MARK GIRARD (Beverly Ruth Terrill) and Timothy Alderson of Lansing. Mrs. Terrill wore a floor-length pink dress for the wedding and reception for 100 guests in Glen Oaks Country Club. Mrs. Girard's gown was a floral print. The couple went to Gatlinburg, Tenn., for their honeymoon and will live in Westland. The new Mrs. Girard is employed by Oakland Community College. Her husband is a student at Oakland University and works for American Sun Roof Co.
