THE U.S. ARMY Field Band and Soldiers' Chorus will present a free concert in Plymouth's Kellogg Park at 3 p.m., Saturday, May 20. Shown above is the chorus. In case of rain, the program "Sing Out for America" will be presented in Plymouth Central Junior High School, Main and Church. This is the only place in Observerland in which the group will stage its 90-minute show during this tour.

600 Performers To Be In Festival

DEARBORN The curtain is about to go up on "Evenings at Fair Lane IV," a spring arts festival being sponsored by the University of Michigan Alumni Club of Dearborn and the Dearborn Community Arts Council.

The event is set for May 19-20 in the Fair Lane Center on the campus of the U-M Dearborn.

The afternoon program will include tours of the house and grounds and special music and ethnic dancing programs. More than 600 performers, including 250 musicians, 150 dancers and 200 artists, actors, film-makers and creative writers, are involved in producing the shows. Behind the scenes are another 150 volunteers.

TICKETS AT $5 for adults and $2 for students are good for the entire weekend. They may be purchased at the door. Profits will go to the U-M scholarship programs and for the cultural activities of the council.

PROGRAMS WILL be held Friday and Saturday evenings at 8, and Saturday afternoon, at 1.

Each evening event will be divided into three segments with a different show in each.

HFCC Players Will Perform In Redford

Tennessee Williams' Pulitzer prize-winning play, "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof," will be presented by students from Henry Ford Community College May 18-21 in the Livonia - Redford Theater Guild playhouse, 15138 Beech - Daly, Redford Township.

Tickets will be available at the Student Center at the college or at the door. Performances are at 8:30 p.m. on weekdays and 7:30 p.m. on Sunday.

Leading roles are being portrayed by Bridget King, Jack Favere, Perry Horvath and Mary Jo Siciliano. Supporting roles are being played by John Rinn, Julie Grove, James Brammer, and Narvel Annable. Todd, Dean, Holly and Scott Montrief and Carmelle Siciliano are taking the children's roles.

Crystal Premo Has Role

DETROIT by German playwright Peter Weiss. The complete performance schedule is May 19-20, 26-27 and June 2-3 at 8:30 p.m. and Sunday, June 4, at 2:30 p.m.

Tickets are on sale at the Wayne State University box office, Cass and Hancock, or at Hudson's. Door sale begins one hour before curtain.

The play is Weiss' view of the insane world of politics and revolution. He sets the action in an insane asylum in France in 1808 and has the inmates react, with their own disordered comments, events of the French revolution.

Botanical Club Plans Picnic

The Southeastern Chapter of the Michigan Botanical Club is sponsoring a wildflower walk in the Lower Huron Metro Park on Sunday, May 21.

Interested persons may call Doreen Judd, 25601 Jackson, Novi.

Art Auction

YPSILANTI More than 50 works by 30 well-known artists will be sold at auction in the Still Hall Art Gallery of Eastern Michigan University, beginning at 7 p.m., Friday, May 19.

Proceeds of the sale will be given to the building fund of the Boys' Club of Ypsilanti.

Suburban Ballet To Hold Auditions

The Suburban Concert Ballet will hold auditions for new members on Sunday, May 21. These are open to all dancers aged 12 and older. Appointments should be made with Mrs. E. J. Gerber, 5651 Old Carriage Lane, Orchard Lake, or with Evelyn Kresson, 3315 W. 13 Mile, Farmington.

The company, which is headquartered in Farmington, was recently chosen as a performing company member of the Mid-States Regional Ballet Association. It was selected along with 10 other groups on the basis of merit and performance by a three-member panel of the National Association of Regional Ballet at a festival in Kansas City, Mo. All companies joining the association are considered to be intern companies until chosen as performing company members.
