

Dr. Shaffer Will Give 2 Concerts

This summer promises to be a busy one for Dr. Allen Shaffer, assistant director of the Summer Music School and Festival at Schoolcraft College.

On July 9 he will perform the "Third Symphony" by Charles Ives on an organ restored by Robert W. Jones, composer - in - residence at Schoolcraft, in the Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine in New York City. This will be the premiere performance of the new version of this work.

On July 18, Dr. Shaffer will be a featured artist with tenor

Edward Kingins and the String Quartet in a chamber concert at Schoolcraft.

WHEN HE leaves Schoolcraft and returns to Norfolk, Va., in September he will have his own radio show on FM Station WGH.

This summer marks the sixth season for Dr. Shaffer as assistant director of the school.

A member of the Schoolcraft faculty from 1965-67, Dr. Shaffer is now an assistant professor of theory and music history at Norfolk.

He also serves as college organist there, and is an accomplished performer on the piano and harpsichord as well.

In 1967 he left Schoolcraft to complete his Doctor of Musical Arts degree at the University of Michigan. He has retained his position at the summer school though, first under Wayne Dunlap, and now working with Richard Saunders, director of the fine arts department.

DR. SHAFFER'S undergraduate work was taken at the Oberlin College Conservatory of Music and at the Academic Mozarteum in Salzburg, Austria, where he spent his junior year. His master's is from Syracuse University.

The Plymouth Symphony Orchestra and at the Schoolcraft Festival, Dr. Shaffer says he looks forward to his summers in this area. It provides a pleasant break from regular college teaching.

Dr. Shaffer has performed in recital at National Cathedral in Washington, D.C., and at Bruton Parish Church, Williamsburg, Va., as well as in Albany, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Toledo, Detroit, Rock Island and Norfolk.

He was formerly the organist at Saint John's Episcopal Church, Plymouth.
