

Calico Party Big Success

Rain nor wind daunted Farmington dance lovers on last Friday evening, when 66 couples were in attendance at Odd Fellow hall for the annual Calico party given jointly by the Rebekah and Odd Fellow organizations.

Each detail was in the hands of an able committee, and everything went off just as smoothly as could be hoped for.

Special music was on hand and dancing prevailed until 11:30 into the night and on into the wee hours of the morning.

During the course of the evening delightful refreshments were served. A ban had been placed on silks and lincens for the occasion, but nevertheless a few found their way inside. However, the average costumes were confined to older and less frill apparel, with calico heading the list.

The affair was a most enjoyable one, and everyone present reports a fine time.

Puritans Play Ball Here

The Puritan base ball team is scheduled to arrive in Farmington next Saturday for a game with the locals which will be called immediately following the high school game.

They were twice defeated here last year, but are said to have materially strengthened for this season, and a warm contest is promised.

So far as is known Johnson and Maas will occupy the mound and take care of the back stop. The remainder of the team will probably include Burner, Finch, Harger, Lapham, Pierce, Wilber and Lee.

With half presentable weather a big crowd is assured.

The Puritans represent the Burnam-Stoepele Dry Goods Co. of Detroit.

Who Said Coward?

The base ball game that was scheduled for last Tuesday afternoon between local professional and business men, failed to materialize, and the real reason therefore, is yet very much in doubt.

Each side blames the other, and as far as can be seen both are right. Be that as it may the words "Fraid" and "Coward" have come in for their share of attention, and it does commence to look as if both sides were really scared out. It's some disappointment too, as the village has been more or less on tiptoe in anticipation of the big event.

Whether it will be possible for the teams to get together is a problem entirely too deep for any mortal individual. Certain it is that a lot of hours of practice have been done in vain, and many a stiff arm and back is the result.

Play Ball Tomorrow

The game of baseball scheduled for last Saturday afternoon, and which was postponed on account of rain and wet grounds, will be played on the high school diamond on this Saturday afternoon, weather permitting.

The local team is confident of winning, despite the fact that the visiting team defeated them at South Lyon two weeks ago, and has lost no opportunity for getting in the best of shape for the game.

South Lyon has a good team, and the game is going to be a good one and one well worth seeing.

The admission is within the reach of all and it is hoped that a good attendance will be on hand to root for the home boys. The game will be called at 1:30.

Graduates Taking Exams

The eight members of the Farmington High School graduating class left on an early car Thursday morning for Pontiac, where they are taking the teachers' examination, which will extend over a period of two days.

Garner Groves has the honor of being the only male member of the class. The ladies are Misses Nettie Dickerson, Ethel Morris, Ethel Chavey, Eleanor Boyle, Tessa Pierson, Emma Schroeder and Mildred Adams.

While all members of the class are taking the examination, only a small percentage expect to take up teaching, the Pontiac examination being taken in place of the high school final.

Sues for Divorce

Alleging the alienation of a wife's affection, William Anglim, resident of North Farmington, who is totally blind, has brought a $10,000 suit in the circuit court against George C. Collins, who is upwards of 80 years of age. Collins, who is a retired farmer, had been living alone until last November, when it is claimed Mrs. Anglim left her husband and went to the Collins home to act as housekeeper. Anglim says that Collins came to the Anglim home at frequent intervals. The declaration filed in the suit sets up that Mrs. Anglim left her husband on Nov. 9, 1913. Blakeslee & Blakeslee appear for the plaintiff.—Pontiac Press Gazette.

Some Foot Race

A party of dusty travelers walked into Farmington last Sunday morning, that is, not exactly a party as one of the three got in 22 minutes ahead of his two competitors. And thereby hangs the tale. Three young Detroit fellows wagered a sum of $30.00 as to whom could make the trip from Detroit to Farmington in the shortest time, it being understood that the trip was to be continuous with no stops allowed. The winner made the approximate 15 miles in two hours 47 minutes, while the other two gave their best in 3 hours 9 minutes. All earned a good rest and took it immediately upon arrival, returning to the city Sunday evening.

During the past week Farmington has certainly received her share of moisture and the result is easily noticeable by the way the lawns and gardens about the village have taken on new life. Trees are commencing to bloom forth, and the gardens are filled with tiny new shoots and sprouts. The rain came in good season, the one of Saturday afternoon being followed by another on Monday and also Tuesday evening. The farmers are jubilant and in high spirits and, though the spring is a trifle late, prospects were never better for a big crop in Oakland county.

More Short Locals

Clyde Putnam of Novi has joined the procession, and is the owner of a new Ford car, purchased last week.

L. F. Schroeder spent Saturday evening and Sunday at Perry, returning home the following Monday evening.

Born—On Monday of last week to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weaver a baby daughter. Mother and babe are reported as doing nicely.

You will find a good selection of Aprons at Cook & Co's.

A new monster road roller, recently purchased by Oakland county, passed through town the latter part of last week and created no little interest.

Mrs. J. C. Clark and daughter Helen Jean, returned Friday last from Detroit, where they had been spending the past couple of weeks visiting with friends.

C. W. Wilber of the Farmington Exchange Bank was a Detroit business visitor Tuesday, and occupied a conspicuous place in the grand stand at Navin field that afternoon.

On page one of this issue is to be found the "Mother's Day" proclamation of Governor Woodbridge N. Ferris. It is the hope of the editor that each of our readers will read it over carefully and give the reading thought. "Mother's Day" is one of the newest holidays, but has come to stay throughout the United States.

C. R. Warner with the Century Lyceum Bureau of Chicago was in the village Thursday, and exerting every effort to place a Lyceum course in Farmington for the coming season. The course of last year was very satisfactory, and it is hoped that the necessary guarantors can be found to assure a repetition for the coming year.

The new Wayne gasoline supply station was installed at the Park garage the first of the week, and is right in keeping with that up-to-date business firm. Mr. Ely is rapidly building up a big garage and a big business and the new supply station will greatly facilitate the work of supplying the thousands of cars passing through Farmington during the summer months. The machine measures, filters and pumps the oil and is of the latest model.

After several weeks of study and rehearsals, "Aaron Boggs, Freshman," is ready for presentation at the town hall this Friday evening. The play is a good one and contains a cast of interesting characters. This play is given by the graduating class of the high school, and it is assured will be received by a packed house the opening night. The play will also be repeated on the following evening. Reserved seat tickets will be used, the admission being placed at 15 and 25 cents.

The Enterprise erred in stating last week that Prof. Finch of the local schools would go to Webberville to accept a principalship at the opening of the school year next fall. Instead, he has secured a very lucrative position in the schools of Fowlerville. At the close of the present school year he expects to go to New York, where he will study during the summer months. During their stay in Farmington Mr. and Mrs. Finch have made a host of friends who will sincerely regret their departure but wish them every success in their new home and work.

The services at the Universalist church were conducted last Sunday by Rev. Willis A. Moore of the Church of Our Father, Detroit, state superintendent, and Rev. Wm. Henry McGlaulin, national superintendent of the Universalist church. Dr. Moore, who has held services here several times is a forceful and practical speaker. Dr. McGlaulin was here in his official capacity as general superintendent. Rev. Olivia C. Woodman, pastor of the church, will occupy the pulpit a week from next Sunday, May 10. The hour will be announced in next week's paper.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J.
