

Meadow Brook Season Will Begin Thursday

ROCHESTER Meadow Brook stage for his second concert, this time performing the Brahms violin concerto, again with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

THE SEASON'S first symphony pops Sunday evening concert will headline Arthur Fiedler, conductor of the Boston Pops, in a program of popular favorites. Joann Freeman, Detroit pianist whose brilliance has won acclaim around the world, will perform the Grieg piano concerto. The Sunday night concert begins at 6:30 p.m.

The festival, which began as a four-week program of symphonic music in 1964, is steadily growing in the metropolitan area. Season subscription sales have already surpassed last year's record sales.

All concerts are held at the Baldwin Pavilion on the campus of Oakland University. Tickets are available at Hudson's, Grinnell's, Wayne State University, Macomb Community College and at the festival box office.

The symphony programs for the week are as follows: Thursday, June 29; Nielsen, Overture to "Maskarade"; Dvorak, Violin Concerto; Casella, Paganiniana;

Respligi, Pines of Rome; Saturday, July 1; Brahms, Academic Festival Overture; Brahms, Symphony No. 2; Brahms, Violin Concerto;

Sunday, July 2; Wagner, Overture to "The Flying Dutchman"; Grieg, Piano Concerto in A minor; Enesco, Rumanian Rhapsody No. 1; Bacharach, Medley, "King of the Road," "Summer of '42," and "Aquarius."

Festival-Goers May Tour Hall

Tours of Meadow Brook Hall will be an added attraction at this year's Meadow Brook Music Festival.

Music lovers will be able to tour the magnificent hall, and even have dinner there, before attending the concert of their choice, symphonic, jazz, pops or ballet.

The hall will be open for public tours every Thursday and Friday from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m., and Sunday from 1 to 5:30 p.m., June 29-Aug. 27. No reservation is needed for tours. Admission is $3.50 for adults and $2 for children under 12.

For festival programs, write P.O. Box 705, Oakland University, Rochester, 48063.

THE OPENING night program will feature the Detroit Symphony Orchestra under the baton of Sixten Ehrling. Perlman will play the Dvorak violin concerto.

More than 6,000 persons attended Perlman's last concert at Meadow Brook in August 1970, one of the largest audiences to attend any festival classical concert in the area.

A complimentary flower will be given to each lady on opening night.

Doc Severinsen will open the popular jazz series on Friday, June 30, at 8:30 together with his New Generation Brass and the swinging Today's Children.

On Saturday evening concert Perlman will return to the

'Charlie Brown' Opens U-D Season

DETOIT The off-Broadway musical, "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown," opens the University of Detroit-Marygrove College Summer Rep '72 season.

"Charlie Brown" will be performed in Theater 113, in the Ford Life-Sciences Building on the U of D campus, beginning June 30 at 8:30 p.m.

Performances run for three consecutive weekends, June 30-July 1, July 7-8 and July 14, 15, with Friday evening performances at 8:30 and two Saturday matinees, at 11 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.

This delightful, family-affair musical traces a day in the life of the downtrodden but ever-optimistic Charlie Brown. Helping him get through his day are all his friends from the "Peanuts" comic strip, Linus and Lucy, Schroeder and Patty and Snoopy.

Tickets are $2.50 for adults and $1.25 for children. Adult group rates are available. The tickets may be obtained through the Performing Arts Center box office, located in the U-D Memorial Building on Fairfield Avenue.

Village Plans July 4 Events

DEARBORN Richard H. Austin, Michigan secretary of state, will be the principal speaker at the annual "Let Freedom Ring" observances at Greenfield Village July 4.

Austin's topic will be "The Goals for '76."

The ceremonies begin at noon against the backdrop of the replica of independence Hall which forms the entrance to the Henry Ford Museum. A new dramatic presentation will bring to life the words and attitudes of people living 197 years ago.

Also participating will be the Marine Corps Color Guard, the Greenfield Village Volunteer Militia with their muzzle-loading rifles and the Wayne Memorial High School Band.

Wayne Morse made the longest continuous speech in the Senate's history when he talked against the Tidelands Oil Bill on April 24 and 25 in 1953. He spoke for 24 hours 19 minutes before resuming his seat!

DICK BENSEK

There are many kinds of olives, each with its own individuality. Although the olive is mentioned in the Bible, its history is obscure. The olive was known to the early Egyptians who were possibly the first to extract oil by crushing the fruit. In Homer's day, the olive was mentioned frequently - not so eating, but for anointing the body. Olives were already in cultivation by the Greeks as early as the 8th century B.C., and the olive was very probably carried by colonists to Italy, Sicily and Gaul. But there, the olive is the only fruit with a pedigree!

Get cutting.

The Grass Does it make you smile in anticipation? Or want to shove the whole back yard? If you've got grass, it needs cutting.

And when lawn work means more than just cutting the grass, you need the international Cadet riding mower that works all year...even to hauling firewood.

Also available in 5 hp. economy model.

International® Cadet 60 Riding Mower. Big 7 hp. engine starts fast with finger tip pull or (optional) key start. Cuts a path 32" wide.
