

Miss Tipping Is Bride

Kathleen Annette Tipping wore a gown her mother designed and fashioned of unbleached muslin and cotton lace when she became the bride of Richard John Morsehead June 24.

The candlelight ceremony took place in St. Christopher Episcopal Church in Carmel, Indianapolis.

The bride, a special education teacher in River Rouge High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roderick G. Tipping of Indianapolis, formerly of Livonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard K. Morsehead of N. Wayne Road, Westland, are parents of the bridegroom, who teaches industrial arts in Farmington.

Newlyweds Ride In Antique Auto

A 1925 Rickenbacker car carried Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Gray Blain from Rice Memorial Methodist Church, where they were married June 17, to their reception in Cregar's Restaurant in Detroit.

They exchanged vows in the Redford Township church in a late morning ceremony officiated by the Rev. James Barnes.

Mrs. Blain is the former Sheila Rose McBride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis McBride of Five Points Avenue, Redford Township, Mr. and Mrs. David Blain of Blain Island, Waterford, are the bridegroom's parents.

THE COLONIAL bridal gown featured lace applique on the skirt. Matching lace fashioned the bride's mantilla veil and gloves, and she carried leaves with small green orchids and blue grapes.

Her sister, Rebecca Tipping, was maid of honor. Another sister, Pat Tipping, was honorary bridesmaid, and the other bridesmaids were Judy Tipping of Ferndale, the bride's cousin, and Mrs. Gregory Coleman and Mrs. Reginald Olsen, friends from Bentley High School days.

They wore purple body shirts with skirts printed in purple, green and blue on a beige background.

Mark Morsehead of Garden City, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were the bridegroom's fraternity brothers from Central Michigan University, and Robert Tipping, brother of the bride, was acolyte.

MRS. TIPPING wore a gown of beige silk shantung, and Mrs. Morsehead was in lavender.

The newlyweds greeted 200 guests in a reception in the Green Tree Country Club, Carmel. After a Canadian honeymoon, they will make their home in Westfield, Mich. The new Mrs. Morsehead is a graduate of Western Michigan University and her husband has his degree from CMU.

THE BRIDE'S COUSIN, Michael McBride of Northville, owns the antique car that carried the newlyweds from the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown she had made of peau de saie and chiffon with lace trim. Matching lace trimmed her floor-length veil, and she carried carnations and baby's breath.

Mrs. Doreen Moss of Redford Township, the bride's sister, served as matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Evelyn Nagy and Nancy Davis of Detroit.

All wore floral print dresses and white picture hats and carried white straw baskets filled with multi-colored daisies. Miss Nagy sewed all the attendants' dresses.

Wayne Brown of Lathrup Village was best man. The ushers were Roger Blain, the bridegroom's twin brother, and Andrew Blain, another brother.
