A Maturing Baby

the pursuit of Happiness.

"That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, depriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, -- That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness."

"Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes...But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security."

A U.S. government in the seventies can be justly overthrown if the self-evident rights of citizens are destroyed; providing, however that the rebels have in mind a plan or form of government which "to them shall seem most likely" to protect those rights taken away.

MAYBE THEY miss the porch sometimes, but the throwing contest sponsored by Observer Newspapers, Inc., last year was enjoyed by many youngsters attending the Southfield Fair held annually at Southfield-Lathrup High School. (Evert photo)
