Devoted to the upbuilding of Farmington and Oakland County

Don't forget Mother's Day, Sunday, May 10.

And come to think of it, the glorious old fourth is less than two months away.

It takes a lot of nerve to write this reform dope. Somebody is always hanging around telling you to practice what you preach!

Tag day played a doubleheader in Detroit last Saturday. The children's hospital and woman suffrage each had tag-sellers on the street.

And we've been so busy selling other fellows to swat the tick that we didn't notice how thick they were getting in our own office. Here goes for the first one.

As a member of the National Guard of another state, I find my self taking no little interest in the Mexican war. Yes, they're thinking some of calling us out.

If you don't believe in the tipping habit has a strong hold in the United States, I got two square meals while I was away this week and both times it cost me an extra quarter.

Two or three fellows have told me confidentially since last week, whom they thought "Old Bill Shiftless" was. One of them even asked if we were the individual meant, and didn't put the question in a very pleasant tone of voice either. Wonder just how many of those would realize it.

Come to Farmington and make your home. Come and see what it really means to live in a community where peace, happiness, friendship and prosperity reign supreme, and where men grasp each other by the hand with the firmest of grips, and call you by your first name. It's an ideal home city and is enjoying steady growth that is sure to win. You will be welcomed as cordially as you are invited.
