

No Substitutes

RETURN to the grocer all substitutes sent you for Royal Baking Powder. There is no substitute for ROYAL. Royal is a pure, cream of tartar baking powder, and healthful. Powders offered as substitutes are made from alum.

LOCAL NEWS

C. W. Wilber has purchased a Saxon car.

Mrs. F. L. Cook was a Detroit visitor Friday.

Irelin Lloyd of Detroit visited at B. J. Meyers Sunday.

Thomas Mahoney of Pontiac was in town Sunday.

J. W. McGee and family expect to move to Detroit next week.

Ask Gildemeister about Milk Mash for your little chicks just hatched.

Arjington, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Newman, is quite ill.

Ana Roberts spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. E. J. Millard, in Livonia.

Mrs. Harry Walz has returned from Indiana and is staying with her sister, Mrs. N. J. Eisenberg.

Mrs. Wm. Crumly and two children of Detroit spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Finch.

Court Northville, No. 65, F. of A., will have a dance on Friday evening, May 14, at their hall in Northville.

Misses Pauline and Ruth Bailey of Pontiac visited their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Voorhes, over Sunday.

Miss Minnie Brumberg of Novi and Mrs. L. Oldenburg of Dixom were guests at the home of the Nelson sisters Sunday.

Stone is being drawn for Frank Walters' new bungalow, which he will erect on the lot recently purchased of Mrs. Mary Osburn.

See Gildemeister for Milk Mash, a baby chick food.

Wilfred Bent of Detroit spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Sayre Harger.

B. E. Dennis is very ill. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dennis of Lyons, Ont., are spending an indefinite time here.

Mrs. Agnes Buno has gone to Pontiac to reside and will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wisom, 315 Perry street.

Frank Walters has sold his house on Grand River avenue to Wm. Sprague, who owned the same property several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Adams and sons spent the latter part of last week setting out fruit trees and strawberries on their farm near Pontiac.

Mrs. Harrison Johnson taught in the grammar grades at the high school last Thursday and Friday. The teacher, Mr. Auten, was at Pontiac writing for a state first teachers' certificate.

Colon C. Lilley No Two Fertilizer and Homestead Brands in stock. You don't have to wait for the cars. Call and get our prices and take advantage of immediate delivery.—Amos Otis.

Chas. Pashley, who has been associated with the D. U. R. as night engineer at the power house at the Junction for so many years, has resigned his position and left last Saturday night for his home in Windsor, Ont. We understand that he was secured a like position in his home town.

Mrs. M. R. Wilber visited friends in Northville and Plymouth Thursday.

Mrs. J. A. Miller spent several days last week with relatives in Birmingham.

Harrison Johnson and Arthur Lamb made a business trip to Detroit Tuesday.

E. S. Grace was looking after business matters at the county seat the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wedow visited at the home of their son, Albert, in Novi several days last week.

Miss Nettie Briggs, who is residing with her parents in Southfield, visited friends in town Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. J. A. Miller was a passenger for Detroit Thursday, where she spent the day shopping and visiting with friends.

Services at the Universalist church next Sunday, May 10, will be held at 10:30 a. m., Rev. Olivia Woodman officiating.

The ice cream season has opened and H. P. Randall has secured the services of Miss Marguerette Cogdill of Redford as assistant in his parlors.

The house owned by Wally Pavne on Mill street and the Warner house on the new subdivision have been further beautified by coats of paint.

It has not been much of a question what to do with ashes this spring. Residents who have been grading and filling in their lawns were quite willing to draw them away.

The editor returned home Wednesday from a three day trip to Chicago and Peru, Ind., having left Sunday morning and is again back on the job. Ads, jobs and news items are just as welcome as ever.

Edward Parmalee died at his home in Walled Lake last Saturday after an illness of about four years. About ten years Mr. Parmalee was engaged in the meat market business in Farmington and was well known here. He was 53 years of age.

The Arbor Day committee of the Farmington Guild, appointed at their last meeting, were not laggards at their duty. They worked in co-operation with some of the members of the high school and the village citizens and the result of their labors showed nine fine maple trees planted on the public grounds of the village.

Mrs. Frank Steele was in Northville Tuesday.

Mrs. C. M. Doherty was a Detroit visitor Thursday.

Mrs. Otto Schaupter and daughters of Redford visited relatives here this week.

H. M. Warner was home from Ann Arbor over Sunday and spent the day at the home of his parents.

Mrs. T. H. McGee was a passenger for Detroit Thursday on a combined pleasure and shopping expedition.

Mrs. Wm. Wagner and daughter of Valley Farm, Dearborn, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. E. Habermehl.

Trees and shrubbery are being planted around the waterworks building and when the work is completed it will be a very pretty park.

Mrs. Mayhew left Saturday for Pontiac to make her home with her son. She had been spending the past year with her sister, Mrs. William VanAlstyne.

Mr. and Mrs. Raby and family are occupying the Holcomb house on School street. They recently moved from Flint and Mr. Raby is an employe of the D. U. R.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the Wayne County Baptist association will be held at Milford May 14, 1914. A very interesting program has been prepared and a large attendance is looked for.—M. E. Wilber, secretary.

The house owned by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Manzel on Grand River is progressing finely under its reconstruction. The raising and remodeling of this house, situated so nearly the center of the village, will greatly improve the appearance of the main street.

Martin Holtz is the latest township possessor of a new Ford. "Just over the line" makes as much difference to the Ford agent as the Rio Grande does to the rebel Mexican. John Phelps also has a new five passenger Ford, and we expect to see him headed this way unless dire misfortune overtakes him.

The Misses Nelscn wish to announce to their many patrons and friends, that commencing with this week, ice cream will be served on Saturdays. The product will, as usual, be of the finest quality, and the announcement will be welcome news to Farmington people generally.

South Lyon high school defeated the local school in a hotly contested base ball game, on the local grounds last Saturday afternoon. Through an oversight the score was not handed in and we have been unable to learn it, further than that Farmington was defeated. This is the second game of the season for the two teams, both having been won by South Lyon.

Miss Leola Ike, well known both in Redford and Farmington, who was taken ill several weeks ago while attending to her duties at the Redford postoffice, was taken to Detroit Wednesday and is now a patient at Harper hospital. A thorough x-ray examination was made Thursday to determine the exact nature of the case. Her many friends will hope that the examination will be the means of leading to quick relief.

Farmington Beats Puritans
The much heralded ball game, Puritans of Detroit versus Farmington, was played on the high school diamond last Saturday afternoon, immediately following the high school game.

As usually is the case, when these two teams cross bats, Farmington won easily, and the score board showed Farmington nine and the visitors five.

A good crowd witnessed the game, although darkness threatened to interfere before the final inning.

Art Lamb substituted for Hildebrand calling balls and strikes with the assistance of a young fellow from Detroit.

This was the first game of the season for both teams.

Fred M. Warner Real Estate

We Have

Three Special Bargains IN REAL ESTATE

If you are interested in Real Estate, See Us

FRED M. WARNER REALTY COMPANY

One of the nicest corner lots, and beautiful home in Farmington is offered for sale. Come in and let us tell you about it.

HOW ABOUT THAT

SUNDAY DINNER

HAVE YOU SELECTED YOUR MEAT YET?

Let me help you with my full line of fancy Meats.

Make my Shop Your Headquarters

H. L. MAAS

Phone 85

Farmington, Mich.

FRED L. COOK & CO.

Now that the time has arrived when we can reasonably expect warm weather, we wish to call your attention to several items of seasonable goods, such as

Stephensdn Underwear for Men
Puritan Underwear for Ladies
Black Cat Hosiery for Men, Women and Children

Hard Pan Shoes for Men
Keith Konqueror Shoes and Oxfords for Men
Boston Favorite Shoes and Oxfords for Ladies

A good line of Soft Soles for Infants
A full run of sizes in Tennis Oxfords
Oxfords, and Pumps for Misses and Children

Prints, Ginghams, Percales, Cotton Crepes, Poplins, Piques,
Wool Hats in Popular Colors, Straw Hats, Caps

We also have a good assortment of
Gents' Work Shirts, Dress Shirts,
Collars, Ties, Braces, etc.

Try our Grocery Department for
Tea, Coffee, Canned Goods, Salt Fish,
Serials, Oranges, Lemons, Pickles, Spices, Etc

FRED L. COOK & CO.