

Mass Unites Nowaks

Married in St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Moon Township, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. David A. Nowak are making their home in Livonia. Mrs. Nowak is the former Paula Kohlman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Kohlman of Moon Township. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony P. Nowak of Livonia are the bridegroom's parents. Celebrating the nuptial mass, first in the new church, were the Rev. James A. Nowak of Romeville, Ill., cousin of the bridegroom, and the Rev. John A. Dompka. George Kohlman, uncle of the bride, was organist and soloist.

MRS. DAVID NOWAK (Paula Kohlman)

ESCORTED to the altar by her father, the bride wore a silk organza empire gown with broad trim and a silk illusion veil that fell from a camelot cap trimmed in seed pearls. Her flowers were white orchids and stephanotis and yellow roses, and her only jewelry was diamond earrings, a gift of the bridegroom. Mrs. Karen Yanchak of Aliquippa, Pa., sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a maize voile gown. The bridesmaids, who wore similar gowns in lime, were Cynthia Newton of Westland, Linda Stenger of Roscomon, Linda Miller of Senickley, Pa. All the attendants carried white wicker bird cages filled with yellow roses, daisies and carnations.

THE BRIDEGRROOM and his attendants and fathers of the couple wore Lord West suits with blue jacquard jackets. The bridegroom's diamond tie tack was the bride's gift. David Michelson of Westland was best man, and the ushers were Rick Nelbert of Maps Valley, Calif., Paul M. Chutis, a student in St. John Seminary in Plymouth, and John Kohlman, brother of the bride.

The reception was held in the nearby St. Francis Cabrini Hall. The couple honeymooned in Florida and the Bahamas before returning to the Livonia home. The bridegroom is an assistant manager with Great Scott Supermarkets.

MRS. JOHN ZUB (Karen Sims)

Zubs Wed In Kenwood Church

Karen Sims, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Sims of Poinciang Avenue, Redford Township, became the bride of John Zub in a recent ceremony in the Kenwood Church of Christ, Livonia. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lottie Zub of Detroit. The Rev. Lee Baltzer officiated, and the bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a full-length lace gown with a sweetheart neckline and a three-tier elbow-length veil and carried a white Bible topped by a white orchid.

DOROTHY GREEN of Livonia, as maid of honor, wore a lavender chiffon gown and carried a nosegay of carnations and roses.

Similarly dressed were the bridesmaids, the bride's cousins Denise and Corrine Sims and the bridegroom's sister, Louise Zub.

Edward Sims of Detroit, the bride's brother, was best man. The bridegroom's brothers, Raymond and Robert Zub, served as ushers along with Steve Cichy of Detroit.

Paula McNeil of Warren, the bride's cousin, wore a lavender dress for her role as flower girl, and Kenny Andrzejewski of Livonia, the bridegroom's nephew, was ring bearer.

The bride's brother, Jim Sims, and David Brotherton, nephew of the bridegroom, lighted the tapers for the candlelight service.

FOR THE WEDDING and reception in the Bonnie Brook Country Club, the bride's mother wore a lavender crepe dress with lace sleeves and Mrs. Zub was in pink chiffon. The two week honeymoon trip was to Hawaii.

The new Mrs. Zub is a 1966 graduate of Bentley High School and employed as a physician's receptionist in Southfield. Her husband works for Detroit Diesel Allison.
