County sheriff's deputies. Young people attributed much of the uncleanliness in lines Farkway not only to their own group but to the lack of trash baskets, poor maintenance and shortage of sanitary facilities on the part of the county. (This writer strongly agrees.) Adult voters did themselves little credit in the eyes of young people when strongly agives, round vorus did themselves little credit in they almost defeated a one-mill renewal of a Wayne County operating levy. Young people considered self - policing as the first and best line of defense at such organized functions as rock concerts. Adults tended to agree that any officers on the scene should be trained youth officers, younger men on the force who sport sideburts, slightly longer hair and other evidences of being in the mode.
