

THE SUBURBAN CHORALE, a women's singing group, will take part in one of two outdoor concerts being planned this month by the Livonia department of parks of recreation, which sponsors the group. Originally called the Mothersingers and then the Livonia Women's Chorus, it was agreed that the new name would be better since the membership consists of women from Farmington, Westland, Plymouth, Inkster, Redford Township, Garden City, Southfield and Detroit as well as Livonia. The chorale rehearses each Wednesday evening in Clarenceville High School under the direction of Bruce Graden, accompanied by Pat Claypool. The organization is open to all women, and interested persons may call the parks and recreation department.

Livonia Plans Free Concerts

The Livonia Parks and Recreation Dept., long a sponsor of several musical groups, will present two outdoor musical festivals this month.

Entitled "Music Under the Stars," the programs will feature both amateur and semi-professional musical groups.

On THURSDAY, Sept. 21, the Stevenson High School Band, the Livonia Civic Chorus, the Michigan Banjo Club and the Naasko Singers will present a varied program of band, pop, and folk music.

On Wednesday, Sept. 27, the Livonia Suburban Chorale, the Livonia Folk Guitar Club, the Tudor Singers, the Plymouth Community Band and the Purple Gang will present an equally varied program of music. Both festivals will be held in the Civic Center Park behind the City Hall. Five Mile Road one block east of Farmington Road.

There is no admission charge. John Dufour, parks and recreation superintendent, made the announcement following a meeting at which a citizens' group, led by the Councilman Robert Bennett, met to make arrangements for the two events.

amusement Schoolcraft Offers Movies For Kids

It's children's free movie time again at Schoolcraft College, 18600 Haggerty Road, Livonia.

The movies will be shown at 11 a.m. and 1 and 3 p.m., Saturday, Sept. 16, in the Liberal Arts Building Theater. Pre-schoolers will see the film in a separate room.

Featured will be "The Magic of Disneyland." Four other movies will be shown. They are "Curious George Rides a Bike," "Cuckoo Clock That Wouldn't," "Cow Who Fell in the Canal" and "I'm No Fool as a Pedestrian," starring Jimmy Cricket. Five teenage ushers will be on hand for the movies.

While the children enjoy the films, parents may spend their time at a coffee hour and may also tour the college. There will be information available about other events for children taking place in Overland and about activities for adults at Schoolcraft.

Groups, such as Brownies, Cub Scouts and Bluebirds, are invited.

The movie program is sponsored by the Faculty Wives Club and the college's community relations department. Mrs. Ralph Atchley, 480 Auburn, Plymouth, is in charge of arrangements.

Free movies will also be shown Saturday, Oct. 21, and Nov. 18.
