South Acres Club To Meet

South Acres Chapter of Women's American ORT will have Mrs. Lois Nochman of the Michigan Abortion Referendum Committee as its speaker this month.

The September meeting will be held at 8 p.m., Monday, Sept. 25, in the Hungtinton Woods Library.

Northwest YW Sets College Tour

A college tour of seven Michigan campuses for high school junior and senior girls is planned Sept. 28 to 30 by the Northwest Branch YWCA.

The bus trip will visit the campuses of Michigan State University, Alma College, Central Michigan University, Ferris State College, Western Michigan University and Kalamazoo College.

At each school, the group will tour the campus, dormitories and classrooms and visit the registration office for information on requirements, scholarships and loans.

The bus will leave the YWCA building, 25940 Grand River, Redford Township, at 8 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 28, and will be back around 5 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 30.

Mrs. Margaret Walter, program director for the Northwest branch, and Mrs. Genevieve Frank, formerly girls' counselor at Clarenceville schools, will accompany the group.

The cost is $38, and will include bus and lodging at Holiday Inns. Meals are not included but will mainly be eaten on campuses to keep costs down. A YWCA membership of $3 a year is required.

Girls interested must register by Sept. 25, and should do so earlier since space will be limited.

Halloween Treats Shown

"Autumnal Treats" will be the title of a food demonstration scheduled in Kitchen Glamor, 26770 Grand River, Redford Township, from Sept. 25 to 29.

Mrs. Paulind Olm of Redford Township and her staff will demonstrate making candied apples, trick or treat candies, carmel corn and special donuts in shows at 9:30 and 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. There also will be an extra show at 7 p.m. Friday.

New residents in the 16 communities served by the Oakland branch are especially invited to attend. Some registrations will be taken during the open house.

There will be displays of a wide variety of activities offered during the fall program season which begins Monday, Oct. 2.

Farmington AAUW Plans Book Sale

Hundreds of books are being readied for the 20th annual used book sale conducted by the Farmington branch of the American Association of University Women.

The sale, which each year helps finance scholarships for women, will be held in the Livonia Mall from Thursday through Saturday, Sept. 21 to 23, from 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Mrs. Ray Anderson and Mrs. Herbert Wang, co-chairmen for the sale this year, have reported contributions of far superior quality to the books sold in previous years.

AAUW MEMBERS who have led the summer preprarations include Mrs. Karson Styhr, set-up; Mrs. Donald Briggs, marking; Mrs. Robert Sherwin and Mrs. Herbert Rogers, scheduling and sales; Mrs. Fredrick York, treasurer, Mrs. Barry Peebles, publicity and Mrs. Stephen Toldy, clean-up.

Each year a small portion of the funds raised through the book sale are donated to the general education work of the AAUW and the major share goes to the group's fellowship fund.
