30250 GRAND RIVER
Just West of Middlebelt

- OPEN -

Monday & Thursday 'til 9 p.m.
Open All Day Saturday

This is how Grand River one block east of Farmington Rd. looked in 1870 before the big fire of 1872 which destroyed most of the buildings. The large stone structure is Oliver B. Smith's building store, the Farmington Masonic Lodge met on the second floor. Other business places are Mrs. Pierman's Millinery Store, Warren Selsby's Jewelry

Shop, Dr. Woodman's Drug Store, the Dohany building and Jackson's Blacksmith Shop. Some may recognize John Hiler, Ack Northrup, Thomas Hanafon, James I. Wilbur, Ben Arnold, William Kennedy, Uncle Fields and Walker Brown in front of J. N. Power's General Store, which was located next to the foundry on the corner. The picture is from the file of the Ralph Everts.
