

Baptists To Hold Mission

Grand River Baptist Church, 34500 Six Mile, Livonia, will hold a lay witness mission Sept. 29-Oct. 1. A group of trained lay persons will come at their own expense from all over the Midwest to tell about the power of Christ in their lives.

The program will begin Friday night with a potluck dinner followed by discussion sessions. Saturday morning there will be coffee groups in homes, followed by men's and women's lunches and group sessions. In the evening, there will be a dinner and more discussions.

On Sunday, the visiting lay witnesses will lead Sunday school and regular worship services and in the evening there will be an evaluation session.

Babysitting and special programs will be provided for children up to the sixth grade during the evening sessions.

Ward Dedicates New Sanctuary And Offices

The new 1,100 seat sanctuary and offices of Ward United Presbyterian Church, one of the largest in the metropolitan area, will be dedicated Sunday, Sept. 24, at 7 p.m.

The Livonia church will receive greetings from Mayor Edward McNamara as well as Mary Grace Adam, moderator of the Presbytery of Detroit and Dr. Richard C. Dunkelberger, minister of another Livonia Presbyterian church, Rosedale Gardens.

Dr. Robert H. Ylton, executive of the Presbytery of Michigan, will preach, titling his sermon "The Church—What Is It?"

Also participating will be the Rev. Frances Nagy, associate for church development for the synod of Michigan, and the church's three pastors, Dr. Bartlett L. Hess, senior pastor; the Rev. Franklin Williams, associate pastor, and the Rev. Robert J. Marlow, assistant pastor.

Others having a part in the church will be William Lindhout, architect for the new building; builder Robert Hall and elders Bruce Boore, Fred Stening and Dean Waldfoegel. Special music will be led by Max Dvay, music director.

Preceding the service, from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m., the community and congregation is invited to an open house, during which various programs and activities of the church will be demonstrated. Refreshments will be served by the Women's Association.

St. Paul Calvary Church Studies Plans Conference

A discussion of the pros and cons of abortion law reform will be featured by the Sunday adult class at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church at 11 a.m., Sunday, Sept. 24.

This is the first in a series of discussions of vital issues for voters planned by the class. The series will be held at 11 a.m. each Sunday during September and October in the parlor of the church, 27475 Five Mile, Livonia.

The Rev. William McLaughly will speak for the positive side of the abortion reform question and Mrs. Beulah Williamson will present the negative side.

ON OCT. 1, a representative of the National Organization of Women will speak on the emerging role of women in politics and society.

Rep. Marvin Stempien, Democratic candidate for the U.S. Congress, will be the guest speaker on Oct. 22, and on Oct. 29, Rep. Marvin Eash, the Republican candidate, will be the speaker.

At the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services in the church this Sunday (Sept. 24), there will be a dedication ceremony for all of the choir.

Dr. W. F. Whitedge, the church pastor, will lead in a litany of dedication in which both choir and congregation will participate.

St. Peter Day School Marks 25th

The Rev. Edgar Hoencke, a leader in founding the St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran Church in Plymouth, will return to speak Sunday, Sept. 24, as the day school marks its 25th anniversary.

Pastor Hoencke, now of San Diego, will be guest speaker for the 8 and 10:30 a.m. services in the church at 1343 Penniman.

A special program and open house are planned at 2 p.m. Also present for the anniversary will be three former principals of the school, Gerhard Mueller, Richard Schard and James Klug.

The school that came into being under Pastor Hoencke's guidance was dedicated Sept. 7, 1947. Another classroom was added in 1950, and a portable classroom a few years later. A gymnasium, library and additional classrooms are in the planning stage.

St. Peter day school now has 101 pupils in grades kindergarten through eight. Its present principal is David Jacobs.

Graham Film To Be Shown

The Billy Graham Association film "His Land" will be shown at 7 p.m., Sunday, Sept. 24, in Judson Baptist Church, 28301 Middle Belt, Farmington.

"His Land," a one-hour color film, depicts the thrilling story of Israel from ancient to modern times.

There is no admission charge and nursery and toddler facilities will be provided.

Rallies On

The Rev. Alton Garrison of Lake Charles, La., is conducting rallies for young people through Sunday, Oct. 1, in the Parkdale Assembly of God Church, 3516 Parkdale, Livonia.

The rallies are held at 7:30 each evening except Monday and Saturday. Rev. Garrison is a recording star.

Rabbi Wine To Lecture

Poland will be the theme of two lectures by Rabbi Sherwin T. Wine in the Birmingham Temple, 26811 W. 12 Mile, Farmington.

The Monday evening lectures are scheduled at 8:30 p.m. Sept. 25 and Oct. 2.

Rabbi Wine, who recently visited Poland, will use the general title "Poland—Jew and Gentile, 1972."

Kenwood Begins Youth Program

Kenwood Church of Christ, 2000 Merriman, will kick off its fall youth program with a 6:30 p.m. service Sunday, Sept. 24.

Keith Gardner, the church's new associate minister, will bring a youth-oriented message, and young people of Kenwood will provide special music.

An hour of group recreation for all youth will follow the service, and refreshments will be served.

MEETING each Sunday at 5 p.m. will be the Whirly Birds for grades one to three, the Jet Cadets for grades four to six, the Tween Agers for grades seven to nine and the Ambassadors for Christ for grades 10, 11, and 12.

Choirs will meet on Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m., beginning Oct. 4. A youth choir will be for grades seven to 12 and a children's choir will have members in grades one to six.

THE NEW associate minister, who assumed his duties at Kenwood early this summer, is coordinating all youth activities.

A 1967 graduate of the Cincinnati Bible Seminary, he has attended the University of Cincinnati and has served as minister of the Sallitu Church of Christ in Sallitu, Ind., and the Lyster Church of Christ in Williamstown, Ky.

Just before coming to Livonia he was youth minister in the Central Church of Christ in Findlay, Ohio.

He is a native of Rushville, Ind., and he and his wife, Alice, have two children.

ARE YOU LOOKING FOR A TRADITIONAL Lutheran Church?

We are pleased to announce that on Sept. 24, 1972, at 3:00 p.m., a first mission service will be held at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Andrew Strick, 29910 Milton Dr., Farmington, Mich. 7/10 mile West of Farmington Rd., 5 houses North of 13 Mile Rd., Phone 626-9557.

The name of this new mission church is Saint Matthew The Evangelist. The mission is being sponsored by Saint Matthew Lutheran Congregation, 4430 St. James Avenue, Detroit, Michigan. Rev. C. A. MacKenzie, Pastor. Phone TI 6-5966.

We have property near 12 Mile and Haggerty Rd., where we plan to construct a new church and elementary school in the near future.

Our Lord Christ said, "If ye continue in my word then are you my disciples indeed."

WE PREACH CHRIST CRUCIFIED!
