

Archdiocese Offers Variety Of Courses

"Get In Touch" is the theme for the fall series of non-credit courses offered by the Institute for Continuing Education (ICE), the adult education division of the Archdiocese of Detroit.

The 18 courses will be given in 17 centers throughout the archdiocese. Interested persons should write or call the Institute for Continuing Education, 305 Michigan Avenue, Detroit, 48226, for brochures listing times and places.

New courses include "The Thought of Teilhard de Chardin," "The Man Called Jesus," "The Gospel of St. Mark," "A Western View of Eastern Religions" and "Man and the Cultural Puzzle."

Each class consists of a lecture and an informal discussion period. The registration fee is $10, and registrations will be accepted the first and second nights of class. Certificates will be awarded when the courses are completed.

Former Pastor Returns For Mission Festival

The Rev. Theodore A. Sauer, missionary to South Africa and former pastor of St. Paul Lutheran Church of Livonia, will return to the church Sunday, Sept. 24 to speak for its annual mission festival.

He will preach during the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services and will show slides of African mission work during the 9:45 a.m. Sunday School hour. The visiting missionary also will be speaker for the annual mission festival dinner to be served by the women of St. Paul following the 11 a.m. service.

The Rev. Winfred A. Koelpin, pastor of the church located at 17810 Farmington Road, will be officiant. Special music has been prepared for the festival by Mrs. Vera Schuessler, music director. Visitors will be welcomed to all services.

THE REV. THEODORE SAUER is shown with a few of the 20 children he baptized recently in his mission in Shimakamba, Africa.

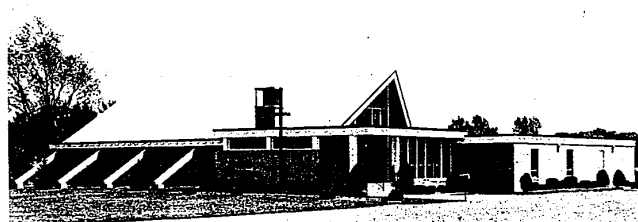

PASTOR SAUER, who now serves in the area of Lusaka in Zambia, was minister of St. Paul from 1941 to 1959. It was under his leadership that the church's Christian day school was founded and the church built its first parsonage.

The day school he started at the former Five Mile and Farmington Road location has grown from 25 pupils and one teacher to 120 pupils and four teachers. St. Paul church is marking its 100th anniversary this year.

Currently Pastor Sauer serves the Lutheran Church, Wisconsin Synod, as missionary superintendent of the Lutheran Church of Central Africa.

HE IS RESPONSIBLE for 13 congregations and mission stations and serves as their pastor, with the aid of Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Spevack, a missionary couple, and four native evangelists.

The mission includes a medical dispensary and clinic where Mrs. Theodore Sauer, a registered nurse, serves as full time medical director. Besides treating illnesses, she has delivered 79 babies.
