

State Works To Correct Juvenile Law Ruling

EDITOR:
I have received your letter of Sept. 1 (which contained Tim Richard's Aug. 29 editorial) regarding the Michigan Supreme Court ruling in People v. Fields, which restricted the ability of probate judges to waive jurisdiction over juvenile offenders, and am happy to answer the questions you raised.

In my judgment, state government responded both quickly and fortitously to the vacuum left in our state law as a result of that decision. As you may know, the House Judiciary Committee is currently considering legislation (HB-6382) which will return us to the situation, existing prior to the court's decision.

The Office of Youth Services, the state's probate judges and numerous legislators have taken great interest in securing passage of legislation (HB-6382) which will return us to the situation, confident that the Legislature will seek speedy consideration when it returns this week. For these reasons, I am not inclined at this time to reconvene my Special Commission on the Age of Majority, but greatly appreciate your interest in this subject.

EDITOR:
I would like to address all the residents of Farmington and bring to your attention the fact that our river is in absolutely deplorable and unnecessary condition.

Peace: The Real Issue

EDITOR:
I would like to say a few words about those signs some people have in their windows. "This family won't be used."

I can think of a much better one, "Stop the Bombing." Isn't that much more important?

How long are we going to keep quiet and let Nixon and his rich friends destroy that country and our too?

When are we going to wake up and start thinking about it. If you were there, maybe you have smartened up enough not to do it again.

Racism is one of the best tools they have and we fall for it. They also use religion to keep us divided. Are there any real differences in people because of the color of their skin?

Not really, it is all a game to keep us divided. It would be funny if it wasn't so tragic.

Why don't we get together and demand a government for the people, and by the people, not for a few chosen big shots.

Think about it. Is anyone worth $200 or $300 an hour? That's what most of the big business people make while some people go to bed hungry.

That's why they keep us divided, so we don't get together and put an end to their fun and profits.

Well, this year we have a chance to elect an honest president, Sen. McGovern. Let's not blow it over a few stupid signs, or ignorance. It might be our last chance to at least slow them down.

We have to have peace. We can have it if we just get together. Make the big shots run on the issues, and we can defeat them. Don't forget there are more of us, all we have to do is get together.

Thomas F. Rost, manager of the beautiful new Harris Funeral Home in Garden City, combines youth with the practical know-how and the wisdom that comes from being brought up in the Harris tradition.

Tom's grandfather and great-grandfather were founders of the firm.

"I learned early," says Tom, "that funeral direction requires ability as well as a kind heart. People who experience a death in the family need more than understanding, they need someone they can rely upon to handle the many details. That's why we strive to be sympathetic professionals."

David Whitney is a Harris professional whose thoughtful service has been appreciated by thousands of people. David is manager of the superbly appointed Harris Funeral Home in Livonia.

Each of these top Harris directors reflects the helpful concern for people which has been a Harris hallmark for over half a century. There are five Harris Funeral Homes conveniently located to serve the metropolitan area.
