

Weekly Bridge Games Now Available In Area

Metropolitan Detroit has become the third city in the nation where bridge players can find a game any weekday afternoon or evening.

Bridge players in International, inaugurated in Chicago last July by Richard Cooper, has set up 12 Detroit area locations where bridge playing will take place at 1 and 7:30 p.m.

Schoolcraft Offers Kids' Movies Free

The accent is on "Autumn Time" Saturday, Oct. 21, when Schoolcraft College presents its second program of free movies for children.

Showings will be at 11 a.m. and 1 and 3 p.m., in the college's Liberal Arts Building Theater, 18600 Haggerty, Livonia.

The movies last about an hour and refreshments are served.

N. Millari; and in Dearborn Heights each Wednesday, in Good Shepherd Episcopal Church, 4138 Williams.

In Birmingham, Christ Lutheran Church, 2855 West 13 Mile, has games on Wednesdays, and the Birmingham YMCA, 400 East Lincoln, has play scheduled Thursdays.

There is a membership fee which entitles the bridgeplayer to participate in any of the games. There is also a fee for each session.

The game played is Chicago Bridge, a four-hand rotation that provides a maximum variety in partners. Also a point system, similar to a golf handicap, is used to balance the advantage more experienced players have over novices.

A host or hostess is on hand to welcome newcomers, to make rulings on questioned plays and to provide instruction in the game to those who want it. There is no additional cost for this.

Cooper says the success of the program in Chicago stimulated its spread to other cities.

"Bridge is a transportable pleasure," says Cooper, "and in our increasingly mobile society, I think bridgeplayers will form a unique social phenomenon for men and women who travel on business and may want to play bridge during a free evening, and for families who move to other cities and want a quick way to get acquainted in the community."

Farmington AAUW Meets

The development of site activities at Westbrook School will be shown in a slide presentation at a meeting of the Farmington Branch of the American Association of University Women at 8 p.m., Wednesday, Oct. 18. The meeting will be in the Farmington Community Center, 24705 Farmington Road.

Mrs. Dorothy Cox, president of the Farmington Naturalists Club, will be the speaker. Co-chairmen of the hospital committee are Mrs. Richard Miller and Mrs. Tad Bury. They will be assisted by Mrs. John Friess, Mrs. Gerald Heatter, Mrs. Paul Braunstein, Mrs. Robert Briggs, Mrs. Marjorie Brown and Mrs. Bernadene Blosser.

MRS. RICK L. JAMES (Joyce Allen)

Joyce Christine Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll B. Chapin, became the bride of Rick L. James, of Farmington, Saturday, Sept. 9. A reception was held at Plum Hollow Golf Club following the wedding ceremony at Grace Lutheran Church. The couple will make their home in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Women's Symphony To Perform

The 26th season of the Detroit Women's Symphony opens at 8:30 p.m., Friday, Oct. 20, in Rackham Auditorium, Woodward at Farnsworth, Detroit.

The 24-member orchestra is the last all-women's symphony in the U.S. Among the members are Carole Maltz and Mary Jo Smith of Farmington; Peggy Bunge, of Garden City; Barbara Runkle of Livonia; and Hanna Lahti and Nel Wardrop of Southfield.

Valter Poole, former associate conductor of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and conductor of the Wayne State Symphony Orchestra, will conduct the symphony.

General Admission to the concert, sponsored by the University Center for Adult Education, is $2.50. Students and senior citizens will be charged $1.
