

'Coming Of Age' Is Topic

A "Coming of Age" celebration of World Community Day is planned by Church Women United in Orchard United Methodist Church of Farmington beginning at 10:30 a.m. Friday, Nov. 3.

Orchard will host Church Women United of Birmingham for the program. The Rev. David Kidd, director of the Wesley Foundation and minister to young people at Wayne State University, will be the speaker, discussing "Youth on the Campus."

Mrs. Doris Beltz, Orchard member who serves as president of the Church Women United unit, said the celebration "is designed as an opportunity for everyone to rejoice in the realization that God is alive and faithful." "We also want to show that the youth of our land are assuming responsibility with us and that we are all involved in a 'coming of age' process to equip us for God's purposes."

Mrs. Aubrey Crockett works with Mrs. Beltz as secretary of the church women's group.

Holiday Mart Is Nov. 4

Handcrafted jewelry and pipe-cleaner Christmas trees will be among the special new items to be offered in the Holiday Mart in First United Methodist Church of Farmington on Saturday, Nov. 4. Members of the church's United Methodist Women have been working since January on the fair, scheduled from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Other craft work will be headed by Mrs. Betty Haines and Mrs. Ellen Jones. Other handmade items will be on sale in a Knit, Needle and Novelty shop, under the direction of Mrs. Esther Meredith, Mrs. Edith Balman, Mrs. Gertrude Hill and Mrs. Naomi Kuckuck. Mrs. Maxine Hinger has asked some of the church's best cooks to contribute to a pantry shop. Mrs. Agnes Stevens is heading an attic treasures booth and Mrs.

Olive McAdams will be in charge of a sale of holiday paper goods and favorite recipes. Other chairmen are Mrs. Erm Holt and Mrs. Diane Runyan in a shop for children only, Mrs. May Crain in a snack shop and Mrs. Ruth Wisman in charge of art work for the mart. Proceeds from the mart will be used for the group's contributions to home and overseas missions.

Bethany Baptists Host Missionaries

Bethany Baptist Church will hold its annual missionary conference Nov. 1-5. The church is located at 34541 Five Mile (one-half mile west of Farmington Road), Livonia.

Meetings will be held at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Saturday evening, there will be an informal meeting for missionaries and friends of the mission beginning at 7. Dr. Bartlett Hess, minister of Ward United Presbyterian Church, Livonia, will lead the devotions. Sunday will be entirely devoted to meetings and services on missions, beginning at 9:45 a.m. and continuing at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Among the speakers will be the Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Konrad, former missionaries and now midwestern and Canadian representatives of the Central American Mission headquartered in Dallas, Texas.

Dr. Pearl Marcy and the Rev. Gerald Dilling, both of the Honduras, will speak and show films, and other missionaries from Central America will speak.

Lutherans Will Study Issues

St. John's Lutheran Church of Redford will begin a series of seminars on current issues at 8 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 2. The speaker will be Joseph Mayo, field representative for the Social Security Administration. He will discuss changes that have come about because of the new Social Security law, including increases, earning limits and Medicaid. The audience will have an opportunity to ask questions.

This presentation should be of special interest to all retirees or to those about to retire.

The church is located at 15422 Mercedes, one block east of Inkster Road and one block south of Schoolcraft.

A WEEKEND BOOK FAIR is raising funds for St. Valentine Catholic School, 25800 Dow, Redford Township. Children in the school have helped gather a big collection of classics, textbooks, mysteries, cookbooks, children's and other books. The fair is open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 28, and from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 29. Helping Sister Alfonso, St. Valentine principal, with the book sorting, are seventh-grader Kryston Van Renterghem, left, and Maureen Flynn, sixth grade. (Observer photo by Bob Woodring)

Plymouth UMC Installs New Organ

The First United Methodist Church of Plymouth, 45201 N. Territorial, is installing a new Zimmerman pipe organ and invites the public to a dedicatory recital at 8 p.m. Friday, Nov. 3.

Dr. Marilyn Mason, chairman of the University of Michigan organ department, will play the recital on the two-manual, 27-rank instrument.

FORMAL dedication will take place in the church at 9:30 and 11 a.m. services Sunday, Nov. 5.

The Rev. Paul M. Cargo and the Rev. Dean A. Klump, ministers, will conduct the service, and Rev. Cargo will preach on "The Sound of Music."

W. Zimmer and Sons of Charlotte, N.C., a family firm that has been making fine instruments for many years, is builder of the Plymouth UMC organ.
