

Farmington Gardeners Set Holiday Talk, Sale

"Knight Before Christmas." Club in Nardin Park Methodist Church, 28887 11 Mile, beginning at 11 a.m. Monday, Nov. 6.

Mrs. Knight, who will speak at 1 p.m., is an accredited instructor in flower arrangements and holiday decor and has served in an executive capacity in local, state and national garden organizations.

She also is a masters judge of flower shows and has become known for her interest in imaginative use of flowers in combinations with weathered wood as well as other textured materials.

HER DEMONSTRATION will include both traditional and abstract uses of decorative materials.

Mrs. Knight, whose home is in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, has written several books on flower arranging.

The bouffie items, including wreaths, swags, antique candleholders, dried flower arrangements and plaques, colonial figurines and other ornaments, have been in the making since summer.

They will be on sale both before the lecture and afterwards, and light refreshments will be available during the sale.

"THIS is the garden club's annual fund-raising event," said Mrs. David McFeggan, general chairman, "and many new ideas in holiday decor will be presented."

Tickets for the lecture and bouffie are $2.50 and may be purchased at the door or from club members.

Funds raised will help the club give its annual conservation-related scholarships, purchase memorial library books and make contributions to the Detroit Garden Center, the Farmington Library, the Farmington Community Center and the Red Cross.
