

Gail Crain Wed To Robert Mitsch

Gail Crain of Livonia and Robert A. Mitsch of Fort Wayne, Ind., exchanged marriage vows in a recent double-ring ceremony in St. Theresa Catholic Church, Fort Wayne.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Crain of Ingram Avenue, Livonia, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George L. Mitsch of Fort Wayne.

The bride designed her white silk and wool worsted wedding dress. With it, she carried white phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis, ball pompons and yellow rose, and she wore white rosebuds in her hair.

HER ONLY attendant, Mrs. Greg Crays of Clinton, Mich., wore a burnt orange crepe dress of similar design and carried a bouquet of white mums, yellow roses and straw flowers.

James A. Mitsch, of Fort Wayne, was best man for his brother.

THE NEWLYWEDS greeted guests at a reception in the Orchard Ridge Country Club in Fort Wayne and went to the Hawaiian islands for their honeymoon.

Their home is in Fort Wayne.

The new Mrs. Mitsch, a graduate of Franklin High School and Michigan State University, is a United Airlines stewardess. Her husband studied at Ball State University and is operations manager of the new products division of North American Van Lines.

Daughters Plan Fair

The Daughters of Isabella, Consolata Circle 938, will sponsor a charity fair on Sunday, Nov. 12, in the Cardinal Mooney Knights of Columbus Hall, 25300 W. Five Mile, Redford Township. The fair will be open from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Proceeds will go to the Little Sisters of the Poor, who help the aged; The Benedictine Association, which works with young men who wish to become priests; Caro, a home for forgotten patients; Guests Home, for priests; and to other charities.

The fair will feature a parcel post booth with gifts from far-away places, a "kids' booth," where children may buy inexpensive Christmas presents, handicrafts and Christmas decorations, homemade candies and baked

KOWALSKI

The Kowalski Pledge

We at Kowalski have always met and exceeded the higher meat-ingredient standards of the State of Michigan. We take pride in our work and our products. And, to reassure our customers and fellow consumers, we publicly and proudly reaffirm our 52-year-old philosophy of offering only the best in meats. In short, we sincerely pledge to maintain our own high standards of quality...and our standards are the highest!

Paul J. Kowalski
President

KOWALSKI VOWS TO MAINTAIN AND EXCEED MICHIGAN'S QUALITY MEAT STANDARDS

Maintain and exceed! For 52 years Kowalski has been a leader in the meat industry. We never compromise when it comes to quality, be it in terms of meat ingredients or in the methods we use to process meats. That's why even in Michigan, where the standards are exceptionally high, we are a leader in the industry.

With us, "Come to Kowalski... the sign of quality meats" is more than a motto, much more! It's a fact, a philosophy established by our founder, Zygmund Kowalski. And we still live by and practice that philosophy. That's why other meat processors emulate us, or at least they try to. We genuinely believe in the quality product. We submit the following for your consideration:

SAUSAGE & KIELBASA: A much leaner meat content in both our sausage and kielbasa. We exceed both the Federal and Michigan legal standards! Why? Because we know our customers prefer this type of quality product.

HAM: Cured and smoked without "added water." Costly? Time consuming? Yes, but the fine ham flavor smoked in the traditional manner can't be beat!

BACON: Dry cured, hand rubbed and hardwood smoked. Old-fashioned? Sure! But it provides the finest bacon flavor and minimizes skillet cookout.

There's more to the Kowalski quality story, of course. And from time to time we'll be giving you more information of this kind. In the meanwhile, rest assured that when you serve Kowalski products, you're serving the best! Enjoy.
