

SC Hosts MCCA Meeting

Schoolcraft College will host the bi-monthly statewide meeting of the Michigan Community College Assn. on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 17-18.

Presidents and trustee representatives from 27 member community colleges are expected for the two-day meeting. Business sessions are scheduled for Friday afternoon and Saturday morning. Schoolcraft's President, Dr. C. Nelson Grote, has arranged a special program for the group on Friday. For dinner, the college will serve one of its noted gourmet menus. Two musical groups, the Madrigal Singers and the Stage Band, will entertain after dinner. SPECIAL exhibits will be prepared to familiarize visitors with the breadth of Schoolcraft's program offerings. As President, Dr. Grote is a regular participant in MCCA activities. Schoolcraft's trustee director is Paul Kadish of Livonia. Since it is the host institution, all Schoolcraft trustees will likely participate in the meeting.

C'ville Accepts Mann Portrait

In recognition of Arthur Mann's contributions as principal at Clarenceville's Junior High, a portrait of him will be on permanent display there.

Mann served as principal at the junior high from 1957 through 1972. He is now principal at Clarenceville's Westbrook Elementary School.

Formal presentation of the portrait to the Junior High was made at last Thursday's (November 9) meeting of the Clarenceville Board of Education.

THE ARTIST is Laurel B. Raisanen, of Westland. Mrs. Raisanen handles type specifications for Observer Newspapers advertising as her full time occupation.

Before coming to Clarenceville in 1940, Mann taught at Hadley for three years. His first teaching assignment at Clarenceville was in the field of social studies when the district's grades extended only through 10th grade. He was a counselor and assistant

Frank Named Strut Manager

Charles A. Frank, 39687 Mayville, Plymouth, has been named general manager of Super Strut of Michigan, a metal framing firm located in Novi.

Frank has been associated with the metal framing industry for 19 years and was product manager for Unistrut Corp. in Wayne prior to his recent appointment.

Super Strut of Michigan was recently established as a district sales outlet and midwest representative for metal framing and accessories by the Oakland firm.

principal at the high school from 1949-1957.

Mann was among those school officials who worked on the organization of the junior high school.

He is a member of Phi Delta Kappa, education fraternity; Michigan Assn. of Secondary School Principals; National Assn. of Secondary School Principals; and Michigan Assn. for Curriculum and Development.

In addition to his other school activities, Mann also assisted in the formation of a band program at Clarenceville.
