

Dressing Or Stuffing, It's A Must

By ELLY

"Turkey and dressing and all the trimmings."

Whether you call it dressing or stuffing, it is a vital part of the Thanksgiving menu. To many persons, it is just as important as the roast turkey itself.

When it comes to stuffing, some people are purists. It has to be just like mother used to make it and her mother before her. Some like it dry and crumbly; some like it wet and soggy.

There are the "giblets in" fanciers and the "no giblets" stalwarts. There is the "sage only" group as opposed to the "throw in a little of everything" crowd.

The true stuffing lover enjoys them all, and will experiment. It takes a pretty poor dressing to dampen his enthusiasm.

SAGE AND ONION STUFFING

2 medium onions, chopped
1/2 c. butter
8 c. soft bread crumbs
6 to 10 sage leaves, chopped or
2 t. dried sage
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1/2 t. salt
1/2 t. freshly ground pepper
Melt the butter, add the onions and simmer a few minutes until golden. In a bowl combine the bread crumbs, onions, butter, sage and egg. Toss until well mixed. Stuff bird lightly.

CHESTNUT STUFFING

1 c. butter or margarine
1 c. minced onion
1 t. ground thyme
1 t. ground sage
1/2 t. salt
1/2 t. pepper
1/3 c. chopped parsley
1 c. chopped celery and leaves
2 qt. soft, stale bread crumbs or cubes
1 lb. chestnuts, cooked, shelled and chopped
Melt butter in skillet and add all ingredients except last two. Cook for five minutes, stirring. Add crumbs and chestnuts. Stuff turkey lightly. Makes about 10 cups.

OYSTER STUFFING

1 c. butter or margarine
1 c. minced onion
1 pint small oysters, drained and chopped
1 t. crumbled poultry seasoning
1/2 t. salt
1/2 t. white pepper
1/3 c. chopped parsley
3/4 c. chopped celery leaves
2 1/2 qt. soft stale bread cubes
2 eggs, beaten (optional)
Melt butter in skillet. Add all ingredients except crumbs and cook for five minutes. Add crumbs and beaten eggs, if desired. Makes about 10 cups.

SAUSAGE-NUT STUFFING

1/2 c. sausage meat
1 c. butter
4 T. minced onion
1 t. paprika
1/2 t. salt
1/2 c. chopped celery
1/2 c. chopped parsley
8 c. soft, stale bread crumbs
2/3 c. chopped pecans, or other nuts
Milk
Cook sausage until brown, breaking into small bits with fork. Add butter and onion. Cook for two or three minutes. Remove from heat and add next six ingredients. Add just enough milk to moisten and mix well. Stuff bird lightly.

RAISIN-WALNUT STUFFING (For chicken or duck)

1 1/2 c. chopped celery and leaves
1 1/2 c. chopped onion
1 t. thyme
1 t. sage
1/2 t. pepper
1 t. salt
1/2 c. butter or margarine
1/2 c. water
3 c. stale bread crumbs or cubes
1/2 c. chopped raisins
1/2 c. chopped walnuts
Cook celery, onions and seasonings in butter for five minutes. Add remaining ingredients and mix thoroughly. Makes about five cups.
