Christmas is the season when modern man and woman tear through department stores and specialty shops with rampant abandon in search for just the right gifts for those on their lists. Our cover this week offers a few delightful, albeit far-out, suggestions for those who have a certain person on their lists who is wretched to please. Our suggestions come with no guarantees, but hopefully they will give you a few ideas of your own.

1. THE NINETEEN-UGHT-TWO HOT AIR BALOON: This gift looks large, however it is to be inflated by the recipient and comes in a 2"x4" box. Perhaps a talkative relative would appreciate it. (Nineteen-ought-two pilot not included) F.O.B. Flagstaff, Arizona.
2. PERAMBULATOR WITH LACE UMBRELLA: This amazing relic is really a portable bar. Perfect for those with pools or large bath tubs. Umbrella collapses, usually when it rains.
3. WIND-UP FUDDPUCKER TOY: "Dudley" is just the thing for hyperkinetic boys and girls with mile-wide sadistic streaks. Instructions are too long and frightening to print here. Batteries included.
4. FIVE-LIGHT LAMP POST — AUTHENTIC COLONIAL DESIGN: Good for DAR members or those who imbibe too freely during the yuletide season and appreciate a bit of support. Comes with candles, gas or GE light bulbs.
5. GENUINE REPLICA OF A SAN FRANCISCO CAR: This realistic conveyance is made of high impact chocolate which may be consumed between New Year's and the Fourth of July. Conductor available in Halvah, Peppermint or Creme de Menthe.
6. CHARLIE THE SHEEPDOG: Guaranteed to shed on your rugs, clothes and furniture. Perhaps Charlie would be a good gift for that fussy Aunt who has everything — except dog hair.
7. MOLLY THE MANNEQUIN: If you have a friend or relative who sews, Molly is great. She tells you how to do all the high fashion things that you see on radio. One of a kind. Not for people who take offense at rude language.
8. ANTIQUE TELEPHONE: Many uses for this one. May be used as a vase, microphone, pencil sharpener, bedside lamp, blunt instrument or jewelry box. Available with or without operator.
9. DELUXE PACHYDERM or JUMBO DUMBO: Perfect for those leather lovers on your list. Tusks are pure plastic. Available in grey or pink. F.O.B. Washington.
10. DAISY MOBILE: The largest item on our gift suggestion list is painted black with a puce floral pattern. Will go five miles per hour or as fast as the recipient can peddle.
11. FIRST PLACE RIBBON: Perfect for that hard-to-shop-for egoist. Wrap an empty box and place this on top. Available in satin or crepe paper.
12. COVERED WAGON: Recipient must be a hardy soul. Comes as a kit. Cannot be constructed in basement or garage. Must have three acres on which to construct. Wash-up kit is optional. Contains a box of Borax and 20 mules.
13. TOTEM POLE: 20 foot collapsible pole. Great for informal entertaining. Grease and pigs extra.
14. SALE BOAT: Was $24.95. Now only $3.98.

OPEN Thursday & Friday Evenings Until 9 p.m.
