

Nuptials Set In Hosanna Tabor

Hosanna - Tabor Lutheran Church in Redford Township was the setting for the recent wedding of Cathie Ann Ralston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ronald Ralston of Redford Township, and Loren Klay Jensen of Westland.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Jensen Jr. of Medford, Wis.

The Rev. R. G. Pranschke officiated for the evening ceremony, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

IVORY SATIN fashioned the bride's princess - style gown, made with organza bodice and re - embroidered alencon lace trim. Her illusion veil fell from a matching lace Juliet cap, and she carried a cascade of white sweetheart roses and baby's breath.

Dressed like her were the bridesmaids, Kristin Jensen of Eau Claire, Wis., the bridegroom's sister, and Linda Tension and Pat Hoppe of Redford Township.

All carried colonial nosegays of bronze and red pompons with talisman roses and wood roses.

BARRY JENSEN of Madison, Wis., was best man for his brother. The ushers were Rich Pelt of Shawano, Wis., Jeff Mathewson of Wauwatosa, Wis., Michael McMullen of Grand Rapids, and David Miller and James Ralston of Farmington.

For the wedding and Kingsley Inn reception for 125 guests, the bride's mother wore a floor - length gold satin dress and the bridegroom's mother chose rose silk crepe.

Following a honeymoon trip to northern Michigan, Canada and Wisconsin, the couple is living in Westland.

The new Mrs. Jensen is a 1969 graduate of Thurston High School and is employed as a computer operator for Vertax Co. Her husband attended Wisconsin State University and graduated from Stout College, Menomonie, Wis., with a degree in industrial technology. He is employed as a design engineer for Jervis B. Webb Co.

Catholic Church in Plymouth Nov. 18.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Rose Ladach of Illinois, formerly of Livonia. Mr. and Mrs. James C. Drury of August Avenue, Westland, are the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. Francis Byrne officiated, and the bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Edward Bonczak.

HER EMPIRE GOWN featured a scoop neckline, long, full sleeves and a ruffle at the hemline. A matching lace headpiece, also made by the bride, held a hip - length veil. Her flowers were white carnations with talisman and tea roses.

Her attendants were Sharlene Schultz, her sister, of Lombard, Ill., as matron of honor, and Nancy Lusk of Livonia as maid of honor. Sandra Schultz, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Their dresses were red - orange knit, and their flowers were assorted blooms in yellow and orange shades.

was best man, and Peter Reikkinen of Westland was groomsmen. They and the bridegroom wore brown Edwardian tuxedos with yellow shirts and black velvet ascots.

Robert Schultz, brother - in - law of the bride, helped seat the wedding guests.

There was an afternoon buffet dinner in Lerrights banquet room following the ceremony and an evening reception in the Westland home of the bridegroom's parents.

The newlyweds had a weekend honeymoon in Michigan. They will live in Plymouth until their new townhouse in Wayne is completed.

The new Mrs. Drury graduated from ladywood High School in 1968 and is employed by St. Mary Hospital as a clerk - typist. Her husband, a 1970 Franklin graduate, is a student at Eastern Michigan University and works for Forest City.
