

Pageant Scheduled

"O Worship the King," an original pageant with special visual effects and choral music, will be presented Sunday, Dec. 17, at 7 p.m. at North Farmington Baptist Church, 3250 West 13 Mile. The Rev. Stanley Nicol, pastor, has invited all in the community to attend.

The program, first presented in 1963, includes music and narration by senior high members.

The cast includes Curt Holmes, Barbara Readett, Richard Hearn, Bruce Rauss, Clare MacDowell, David Nicol, Diane Caudell, Jane Nicol and James Morpheus. Joh Flehman will be soloist.

The choir will be under the direction of Bill Holmes, with Terry Crossley directing the junior high choir.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stover are youth directors for the presentation. Susan Torbio and Roberta Rauss are program coordinators.

Rosedale Choir Sings Selections From 'Messiah'

Rosedale Gardens United Presbyterian Church will offer the public a presentation of the Prophesy and Nativity sections and the Hallelujah choruses from part two of Handel's "Messiah" Sunday, Dec. 17, at 7 p.m.

The program will be presented in the sanctuary of the church, 9601 Hubbard at W. Chicago, Livonia.

Taking part will be the voice choir, a 25-member string orchestra composed of church members and instrumentalists from the community, and Steven Egler, organist and harpsichordist. Shirley E. Harden will direct.

Soloists will be Helen Thomas, soprano; Martha Kuykendall, contralto; William Dumphy, tenor; and Ted Mast, bass.

"Messiah" is the latest in a series of community events sponsored by the church's music and fine arts Committee.

Schedules Yule Party

The children will both entertain and be entertained at the annual family Christmas party Sunday, Dec. 17, at 6 p.m. in Timothy Lutheran Church, 8820 Wayne Rd. Livonia.

Two special color movies have been secured for the young people's enjoyment: "The Christmas Bus" and "The Very, Very Best Christmas of All."

The youth choir will sing a number of anthems, the newly formed instrumental ensemble will play Christmas music and all will join in familiar Christmas carols.

Two Christmas Eve services are planned. The early service, at 7:30 p.m., will feature music by the youth choir with instrumental accompaniment. The 11 p.m. candlelight service will have music by a guest quartet of professional singers and a guest organist, William Ness.

At University Hills Children Mark Jesus' Birthday

Children of University Hills church in Farmington will sing "Happy Birthday" to the baby Jesus at the end of their Christmas program at 6 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 17.

The song, complete with birthday cake, will be part of a dramatic presentation of the Christmas story as the children see it.

"We're celebrating Jesus' birthday, with the emphasis on his first one," said Mrs. Nancy Bates of Farmington, church school teacher who has worked with the children to arrange the program.

"THE CHILDREN have really taken over," Mrs. Bates said. "I wrote a script, but they weren't comfortable with a lot of the speeches, so they put things into their own words."

"It's a production the children are enjoying -- no one seems to feel under pressure. The older ones are helping the little ones with their parts."

Rebecca Jo Ellens will play the role of Mary and Douglas Koning will be Joseph.

The program will begin with Joe Larson, one of the elders of the community church, telling some of the smallest children about the prophecies that led to the coming of the Messiah.

Mrs. Bates and the Rev. J. Harold Gillis said all members and friends of the church are invited to the program.

A HAPPY BIRTHDAY for the baby Jesus will be part of the children's Christmas program in University Hills church in Farmington Sunday, Dec. 17. Previewing the moment are Beckie Ellens (left), who plays Mary in the pageant; Cal Friling; Mrs. Nancy Bates, directing the program; and Kristy Koning. (Ever photo)

"You can't teach an old dog new tricks" is a familiar saying, and it often applies to people as well as to members of the canine set.

Not at our firm, however. We use the years to full advantage... always seeking, always learning, always accepting new ways of helping when we're sure they are better ways of helping.
