MARY STOREY of Detroit is the happy mother of the first baby born in the Detroit area. Her daughter was born one second after midnight on New Year's Day in Botsford General Hospital in Farmington Township. Doctors said they deliberately delayed the birth so Miss Storey could have the distinction. (Photo by Fran Ebert)

The Farmington Drop-in Center held its Christmas party Dec. 18 in the Masonic Temple. Sixty-five guests were present.

Honored guests were City Manager Robert Deadman, his secretary, Mrs. Jo Bousheng; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lane of the Farmington Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. Nedra Veina and Mrs. Fran Sarto, coordinator for the Senior Citizens. Entertainment was furnished by the Harrison and Farmington high singing groups led by their musical director, Mr. Foyle.

Mrs. Therese Meagher of Mooney Rd., Farmington, has just returned from a two weeks vacation in Hawaii. She also visited the Four Islands. She had a wonderful time with the Chrysler Club.

MR. AND MRS. Ray Leber of Farmington Apartments announce the arrival of their 15th grandchild in Euclid, Ohio. Mrs. Leber is a member of the Drop-in Center.

James (Jim) Smart, well known in this area, fell and broke his leg bone below the hip and is hospitalized at McPherson Medical Center, Howell, Mich., Room 202A. Please drop him a card or a note of cheer this Holiday Season.

Miss Sarah Whitten of Grand River Avenue enjoyed two wonderful weeks at the El Presidente Hotel in Acapulco.

The evening of Dec. 19, a busload of Senior Citizens enjoyed a tour of the Farmington subdivisions to see the beautiful Christmas decorations and lights.

The Senior Citizens Social Club of Farmington held its annual Christmas dinner at the Farmington Holiday Inn Thursday, Dec. 21.

Seventy-five members attended the dinner which was followed by entertainment from four talented young ladies, The Wheels from Farmington. Later they led in the group singing of Christmas carols.

The tables were covered with red tablecloths, the centerpiece was appropriate for the holiday season and lighted red candles served as decoration.

GET WELL wishes go to Mrs. Charles Fluhmann, who returned home recently from Sinai Hospital after surgery.

Ty Tyler of Violet, who was hospitalized at St. Mary, is expected home this week.

Paul Charron of Powers is currently in St. Mary Hospital in Room 407E. Mrs. Charron reports he is seriously ill.

Please remember these people with cards.
