

'As Our Congress Watches... And Waits'

EDITOR: "Peace with honor." Article I, Sec. 8, Clause 11 and 14 of the U.S. Constitution says: "The Congress shall have power to declare war, grant letters of marque and reprisal, and make rules concerning captures on land and water; . . . to make rules for the government and regulation of the land and naval forces."

Congress has declared no war. The deadly bombs fall - don't fall - then fall again, and the screams of in-the-way civilians are drowned out by the land-destroying, people-killing bombs.

And our Congress watches as its constitutional powers are blasted into impotency. And our Congress waits.

The sickening path of blood, death and destruction through the peopled cities is sown by the detached warriors above, destroying all, at whatever cost (moral and monetary) in order to attain "peace with honor."

And our Congress is indignant, and cries out, and does nothing.

The warriors at home are ready to "bomb them back into the stone age," to destroy them if necessary, to "save them."

The world is ashamed of the carnage and ashamed of the carnage and ashamed of the carnage for mercilessly destroying one of the smallest.

And our Congress, which has been told "peace is at hand," waits and watches - and does nothing.

The airborne monsters of destruction are destroying the terrible North to protect the saintly diabolical dictator of South Vietnam who silences a free press, abolishes their constitution, crushes political opposition and dictates what the great United States will and will not do.

And our U.S. Congress, which has been told not to interfere because of delicate negotiations, says "mercy, mercy" and does absolutely nothing.

The stink of Vietnam grows worse and the blood will not wash off.

Theft Ruins Christmas

EDITOR: A young lad, Robert Michael Barnett, of 9229 Ball Ave., Plymouth, took his Christmas present from his parents to high school to show his friends.

It was a radio and tape recorder, and he put it in his locker. It was stolen.

This was a big loss to a 14-year-old. Now, some boy or girl must have taken this home with a different story.

Whoever that was - would you please send it back with no questions asked. Robert is heartbroken and was so proud of his gift. It cost closer to $50 and cannot be replaced.

Service Unit Was So Near

EDITOR: To the man driving a red Pinto, who dropped off a male companion, we wish to extend our nauseated thanks to you both.

In broad daylight, in a residential area, why select a clump of bushes to relieve yourself?

And to you, the driver, with so many service stations nearby, surely you could have driven your companion to one. The restrooms are much more sanitary.

We thought only animals were supposed to use the great outdoors, and even some of them have the sense to clean up after themselves. We have enough fertilizer in our township from (the animals) we don't need yours.

Tax Renewal Is Supported

EDITOR: It would be a great disservice to school children in Wayne-Westland School District to discontinue the school millage (to be voted at a Feb. 5 special election).

The extra reading courses and speech therapy, to name just two of the many extras provided by adequate millage, would be dropped to the detriment of many children.

Aging Unit Popular

Judging from initial reaction, there soon will be a Wayne County Commission on Aging to concentrate on solving problems of the elderly.

County Commissioner Rose Mary C. Robinson, of Detroit, introduced a resolution proposing the commission.

Her proposal was such a hit that all the commissioners present joined as co-sponsors, and the resolution was approved unanimously at the Jan. 11 meeting of the county board.

Commissioners were meeting as the Ways and Means Committee. Final approval of the plan was scheduled for the formal board meeting Jan. 18.
