Obituary

Dolly H. Parrish was born Feb. 12, 1835, in Livingston, Geesee County, Ohio. Her mother having died when she was but six weeks old, she was cared for by friends until the age of five years when she went to live at the home of an uncle in South Livonia, New York, where she resided until her marriage to Alphonso P. Darrow on April 29, 1855. To them were born seven children, three of whom survive. They are Mrs. Wm. R. Parrish, Earl E. Darrow and Mrs. E. J. Sowles, all of this place, together with six grandchildren, six great grandchildren and many other relatives and friends.

She passed peacefully to the higher life on Wednesday, May 27, at 3:15 to join the husband and children who had gone before.

The funeral was held from the residence Saturday, May 30, conducted by Rev. Olivia Carpenter Woodman and singing by a grandson, and she was laid tenderly to rest in the family lot at Franklin by her six mainly grandsons. Friends were present from Leslie, Leonard, Pontiac, Birmingham and Highland Park.—Contributed.

No More Express

Both the Farmington and Redford agents for the United States Express company were checked out of their respective offices this week and both are now closed, the United States company having quit business.

As a result both of these villages are feeling the effect in a strenuous manner. Just for instance, our shipment of paper this week proceeded to jump from a weekly charge of 53 to 78 cents, a matter of 25 cents, or $12.50 per year. We're not the only sufferer however, and many the wail that is being heard and will be heard in the course of days or weeks.

However, it is possible, if not highly probable, that some other company, probably the Adams will take up the business on the electric lines.

While not an exact lover of express companies, we're not exactly in the mood for "digging" for the lack of love. For that matter, neither are you.

Bladder irritations, kidney troubles, dull headaches, weariness, pain in back and sides, all show the kidneys need to be toned up, strengthened, their regular action restored. Foley Kidney Pills will do it surely and quickly. They give good health, freedom from pain, a return of appetite and sound sleep. Try them. Sold by T. H. McGee.
