

Food Raises Band Funds

FARMINGTON Farmington High School's young musicians are urging family and friends to eat all three meals Sunday, Feb. 4, at McDonald's Hamburgers, Orchard Lake at 16 Mile. Between-meal snacks also are encouraged.

That's because Bernie Schmitt, restaurant owner, has volunteered to give half the day's receipts (after taxes) to the school's band and orchestra for new jackets, instruments, music or any other need.

Schmitt said he was prompted to make the offer after noticing the inadequacy of the light weight jackets worn by band members on last October's tag day.

He contacted Harry Williams, president of the high school's parent music patrons, and suggested the money-raising project.

A group of high school musicians will play from 2 p.m. to 7 p.m. to entertain patrons of their benefit day.

Samuels Is New Manager

FARMINGTON Edward R. Samuels, Farmington, has been named cosmetic national accounts manager for Menley and James Laboratories, Philadelphia.

Samuels and his wife, Jeanne, and their two children will be moving to Cherry Hill, N.J. He formerly was employed by the Life Insurance of Connecticut.

Co-Captains

Serving as co-captains of Michigan State's 1973 swimming team are seniors Ken Winfield of Little Silver, N.J. and Alan Dilley of Champaign, Ill.

No. 1 Back

Michigan State All-America football safetyman Brad will be moving to Cherry Hill, N.J. He formerly was employed by the Columbus, Ohio Touchdown Club as its 1972 College Defensive Back of the Year.

STEVEN M. CONWAY, of Quaker Valley Rd., Farmington, has been promoted to assistant cashier in the commercial loan department of Detroit Bank and Trust. A University of Michigan graduate, he joined the bank in 1970 as a credit analyst. He is a member of Robert Morris Associates, Economic Club of Detroit, American Institute of Banking and American Bankers Assn. as well as the Young Republicans and Detroit Club.

Winter Session Adds 4 Courses

FARMINGTON The Farmington Community Center is adding four new classes to their winter session.

PUPPETRY will meet from four to six p.m. for 10 sessions. Mrs. Mildred Berry will teach the class, mainly of youngsters from grades four through seven.

They will select a dramatic production to perform for friends at the end of the course. The play characters are created by the children, along with the stage and sets. Fee is $24.

HEBBS, "for use and delight" will be taught by Mary Gerathy.

The complete use of herbs.

from growing to eating to decorating, is taught in the course. Mrs. Gerathy teaches classes at Greenfield Village, is founder and past chairman of the Michigan Herb Society.

INVESTMENT will be taught by Bill Pilechak, a Farmington resident who is an account executive and research liaison man for a Detroit stockbroker.

The class begins Feb. 1, from 8 to 10 p.m., with five sessions at $12 per person or $20 per couple.

The course concentrates on investment objectives, market procedures and investment methods.

PHOTOGRAPHY has a new instructor - Jerome Brack, of Farmington, a national authority on retouching color negatives. The class starts Jan. 29.

Boy Scouts Are Wanted

FARMINGTON Openings still are available for Boy Scouts in the Clinton Valley Council, which includes Farmington, to attend the 1973 National Scout Jamboree.

Nearly 35,000 Scouts are expected to attend the encampment Aug. 3-9 at Moraine State Park, Pa., about 45 miles from Pittsburgh.

Deadline for applications is Jan. 31. Scouts and parents interested should contact either their scoutmaster or the Council Service Center in Pontiac.

Tentative cost is $175, including transportation and lodging.
