Registration For Baseball

FARMINGTON
Registrations will be taken early next month for boys and girls South Farmington baseball leagues.
Leagues are open for boys eight through 16, and girls eight through 13.
Registration will be in Farmington High School, 32000 Shawwassee, on March 3 from 7 a.m. to 2 p.m., on March 8 from 7 to 10 p.m., and on March 10 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.
Late registrants will be charged $5.
The regular registration fee will be $5 per player, which must be paid in full at the time of registration. Parents also must present a birth certificate. The fee includes $15 in fund raising tickets, for a prize drawing. Players retain the ticket money so that actual cost to the parent is $10.
More than 1,000 boys and girls are involved in the program, said Baseball Commissioner Robert Rounds of Glenmore Heights Drive. New leagues have been added both last year and this year. As a result, the league needs a higher budget, Rounds said.

A DEALERSHIP OPPORTUNITY BIG AS ALL OUTDOORS
America is discovering that yard care can be fun again... a welcome relief from today's pressure living. And Case outdoor power equipment is the key to this new world of outdoor fun. As a Case outdoor power equipment dealer, you sell and service proven products, with the same kind of precision engineering, performance, durability and service that mark the big Case farm and construction machines. You sell with confidence, backed by the $400,000,000-plus Case Company, a division of Tenneco. Power ranges from 8 to 16 hp to appeal to a wide range of prospects, both home owners and commercial users. A full line of compact tractors with attachments, riding lawnmowers and walk behind mowers, tillers and snowblowers. What does it take to be a Case outdoor power equipment dealer?
