And if the country postmasters told a few things they know about mail orders and mail order houses, there'd be a lot of business men that would put a lot of patrons on the same credit list as that maintained by Montgomery, Ward & Co.

Hon. Wm. Alden Smith is just as common as anybody and is now the proud possessor of a Ford auto. William's is just a little different, however, being finished in solid german silver, special paint, and morroco leather. It was a present from the manufacturer himself.

Whether it may be regarded as a handwriting on the wall, or not, we are unable to foretell, but the fact remains that out of 245,000 votes cast in the August primaries in Michigan, 202,975 of them went to the credit of the Republican party, yet Gov. Ferris secured in excess of 200,000 votes in the November election in 1912.

The Public Domain and Immigration Commissions have just issued and sent out copies of a new volume entitled "Michigan." The book is one as complete as could be desired, and deals with conditions in the state as a whole as well as in all individual counties. It contains valuable statistics regarding the state in general, and will prove invaluable as a booster for the state in a hundred different ways.

The preacher has a hard time of it. If his hair is gray he is old. If he is a young man he hasn't had experience. If he has ten children he has too many. If he has none he should have and isn't setting a good example. If his wife sings in the choir she is presumptuous. If she doesn't she isn't interested in her husband's work. If a preacher reads his notes he is a bore. If he speaks extemporaneously he is not deep enough. If he stays at home in his study he does not mix enough with the people. If he is seen around on the street he ought to be at home getting up a good sermon. If he calls on some very poor family he is playing to the gallery. If he calls at the home of the rich he is an aristocrat. Whatever he does someone could have told him better. He has a fine time living off donations that never come in, and promises that never mature. Next to being an editor the preacher has the world bested for a quiet, peaceful (?) slide down the toboggan of time.—Northville Record.

Banks throughout the country are making new and renewing old loans, which is the best kind of evidence against the money shortage scare which had a lot of people wondering but a few weeks ago.

Before the farmer can occupy fully that position in public affairs to which he believes himself, and should be entitled, he must utilize to their fullest capacity the school, the church, and the country newspapers.

Just because Jim Whatshisname says there are hard times doesn't make it so. If I remember right, Jim was too busy for one reason or another to take any kind of care of his crops this summer, and as a result raised a very generous crop of weeds.

Keep Your Liver Healthy Active

A man in Kentucky has just told a friend that Foley Cathartic Tablets were the most wonderful medicine that had ever entered his system. Said he would not be without them. Neither would you, if you had ever tried them. A thoroughly cleansing cathartic for chronic constipation or for an occasional purge. T. H. McGee.

Buyers to Share in Profits Lower Prices on Ford Cars

Effective from August 1, 1914 to August 1, 1915 and guaranteed against any reduction during that time:

Touring Car	- -	$490
Runabout	- - -	440
Town Car	- - -	690

P. O. B. Detroit, all cars fully equipped. (In the United States of America only)

Further we will be able to obtain the maximum efficiency in our factory production, and the minimum cost in our purchasing and sales departments if we can reach an output of 300,000 cars between the above dates.

And should we reach this production, we agree to pay as the buyer's share from $40 to $60 per car (on or about August 1, 1915) to every retail buyer who purchased a new Ford car between August 1, 1914 and August 1, 1915.

Speaking of politics, it looks like a lot of Progressive voters had strayed from the straight and narrow.

Nobody has as yet tried to figure out just how much the war is going to cost in printing ink and news paper.

Another way to gauge prosperity is to count the new silos just completed or under construction in the adjacent territory.

It doesn't make any difference whether the war correspondents send in their stories or not — they get out an extra just the same.

It is as much a duty of the country pastor to exhort us to own a home while living on this earth as to inspire us to build a mansion in the skies.

One thing about this war is that you're at least able to pronounce most of the published names, which was more than Huerta's warfare methods would permit of.

White Theodore was discovering that river down in South America somebody lost a lot of Progressive votes, if returns from the late primaries may be called an indication.

The editor of the Pontiac Press Gazette believes that the present war should be labeled "Made in Germany." But there are a lot of things sneaked into this country wrongly labeled.

All of those fellows who have been yelling their heads off about the automobile being the cause of the high cost of living, haven't got very much of anything on the average country editor.

Banks throughout the country are making new and renewing old loans, which is the best kind of evidence against the money shortage scare which had a lot of people wondering but a few weeks ago.
