FRED L. COOK & CO.

The annual Thanksgiving dance at the Grace House on last Thursday evening drew a large crowd, and a fine time is reported by all in attendance.

Mrs. Oscar Smith was a passenger for Flint Friday for a short visit with her daughter, Mrs. Alta Wood, who is securing medical treatment in that city.

Mrs. Frank Steele accompanied her little nephew, Jack Brannack, to his home in Pontiac last week, his father having fully recovered from an attack of diphtheria.

Mrs. T. D. Tibbits returned recently from Petoskey, where she spent several weeks with her friend, Mrs. P. Stoddard. On her return trip she also visited with Ellen Cogsdill and son.

Through an error an item in last week's paper stated that Mrs. T. L. Irving had been taken to Harper Hospital for an operation. It should have read Mr. Irving in stead of Mrs. Irving.

Murray Moore spent several days here the latter part of last week visiting with relatives, taking advantage of the opportunity offered by Thanksgiving vacation from school duties at Lansing.

Cook & Co. are showing a large line of both leather and rubber footwear.

There will be services at the usual hour next Sunday in the Universalist church, after which the church will take its vacation until about March 15th, 1915. Sermon by the pastor. Subject: "The Seen and the Unseen." All are invited.

Invitations are being issued this week for a Dancing Party to be given at Odd Fellows Hall on Friday evening, December 11th by Ralph Hogle and Arthur Lamb. Musicians and caterers have been engaged from Northville, and entertainment is assured on an elaborate scale.

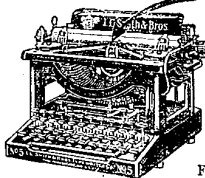

Basketball season has arrived full force, and practice is being kept up by two or three local teams. A double header was staged at the water works hall Thursday evening between two high school and two town teams, which proved exciting to players and spectators alike.

Dave Woodruff is severely handicapped in getting about since last Friday evening as the result of a badly sprained ankle and wrenched knee. The accident occurred while he was alighting from the car, when he in some unknown manner turned his ankle. Under a physician's care the injured member is healing nicely.

Mrs. Emma Wilber was hostess at a Thanksgiving dinner party on last Thursday, numerous relatives and friends being guests and enjoyed a fine Thanksgiving dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wilber, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Wilber, Mrs. B. Lapham, Miss Hattie Hartsough and Mrs. Mary Hodge of Plymouth, and Miss Mary Power of Detroit.

Carl Ely of the Park Garage reports that he has signed up his annual contract for a big bunch of Ford cars, and is now impatiently awaiting the arrival of that time of year that makes men get the "auto fever." A showing to be proud of was made last year in volume of sales, but good as it was we have every reason to believe that even it will be beaten by the number that will be sold here this year. The little car has come into its own, and seems to be just the article at just the right price.

Neighbors of H. P. Randall, or those who have the habit of retiring at an early hour, were rudely awakened from their slumbers last Saturday night by a revolver shot. A neighbor returning home at a late hour in his endeavor to arouse some member of his household, was mistaken for someone believed to be breaking into the Randall home, and Mr. Randall, after giving warning, took a chance shot. No one was hurt, and the shot doubtless had the desired result of arousing the slumbering neighbors next door.
