

20 Per Cent Reduction

On All Our Fancy China

Desiring to close out this particular line of our business, we are making this offer just at this time. This is a good opportunity to make a slight saving in connection with your Xmas shopping.

..Cook's Holiday Suggestions..

Dining Chairs	Tables	Rockers
Kitchen Cabinets	Silverware
Traveling Bags	Pocket Books
Sleds	Dress Shirts
Ladies Hand Bags	Hosiery
Ties	Suspenders	Handkerchiefs
Belts	Books	Games, Etc.

We also have a nice stock of Christmas Candies and Oranges

FRED L. COOK & CO.

...LOCAL NEWS...

Fred Pauline was a Detroit vjitor Monday.

See Cook & Co. for full line of Winter goods.

Mrs. J. A. Miller was a Detroit visitor Wednesday.

Ralph Hogle and Herman Maas were Detroit visitors Friday last.

Good supply of Blankets and comforts for sale by Cook & Co.

Mark Owen is at home from Ann Arbor for the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Lee L. West of Novi was a guest of Mrs. William Irish, Monday.

Harley and Howard Warner are home from Ann Arbor for the holiday vacation.

A 20 per cent reduction on all fancy china at Cook & Co's.

Mrs. Nina Whipple spent several days last week with relatives in Detroit.

Mrs. M. R. Wilber was the guest of Miss Mary Power of Detroit, Thursday.

E. S. Grace was looking after business' matters at the County seat Friday afternoon.

Albert B. Havrane, Farmington's new greenhouse man, has a nice wreath display in the postoffice window.

FOR SALE—Quantity of Mill wood. Phone 50 J11. 7-12

The D. U. R. pay car was out this way Tuesday morning, and paid out a nice bunch of Christmas cheer in the form of gold to the many employees.

Miss Mamie Hatton, who is attending the Ypsilanti Normal school, arrived Thursday evening to spend Christmas and the holidays with her parents.

Cook & Co. are showing a large stock of Gloves and Mittens.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Meyers were Detroit shoppers Tuesday.

H. C. Voss and Alfred Coleman were Detroit visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. C. Spaller and son Paul were transacting business in Northville Saturday.

Miss Edessa Locke of Detroit is spending the Christmas holidays with relatives here.

Miss Marguerite Cogdill of Redford spent the latter part of last week with Farmington relatives.

Mark Bachelor, who was injured in falling from a load of hay a short time ago, is again able to be about.

Mrs. M. Truscott left Sunday morning for Cedar Rapids, Iowa, called there by the serious illness of her sister-in-law.

The postoffice is a busy place these past few days, with the many Christmas parcels and big increase in first class mail matter.

Herman Maas caught the early car for Detroit Wednesday morning, where he done a little holiday specialty shopping for the market.

The Harmony Club is planning another dance for early in the New Year, which will be welcome news to those who attended a similar event given by that club a short time ago.

Good books for Holiday gifts will be found at Cook & Co's.

Everyone who attended enjoyed a very pleasant evening at the dance given at Odd Fellow Hall Friday evening, but the crowd was slightly smaller than usual, owing to the snowy weather, and the approach of the holidays. An oyster supper was served during the evening.

The members of the Methodist Sunday School, voted last Sunday to contribute the amount of money usually expended for their Christmas treat of candy, to give Christmas cheer to the poor children of Detroit. There will be a treat of fruit, however, for the local Sunday school.

The scheduled special meeting of the council for last Monday evening, was postponed on account of the inability of the President to attend, owing to the illness of his mother. The meeting will take place at an early date, when it is expected that the new milk ordinance will be passed.

Invitations are out this week for the Second Annual O. E. S. Ball, to be given at Odd Fellow Hall on New Year's Eve, Thursday, December 31. Stone's 5-piece orchestra has been engaged for the occasion, and it is assured that a large crowd will see the old year out and the new one in while in attendance at the dance.

Rev. G. J. Webster was called to Detroit Wednesday by telephone on account of the illness of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Reed Webster, who is suffering from tonsillitis.

W. I. Ely is just able to be around and that's all, being very nearly laid up with a combined attack of lagriple, and a very unwelcome boil on the back of his neck.

The Farmington school closed Wednesday evening for the Christmas vacation. Appropriate exercises were held in all of the grades. The work will be resumed on Monday, January 4, 1915.

As fine sleighing as could be asked for or wanted has been made possible by the several recent snowstorms, and the jingle of sleighbells is commencing to sound more or less common.

Wilmar Johnson arrived home from Lansing Friday, where he is a student at the Agricultural College, to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of Stony Brook Farm.

Each week a copy of the Farmington Enterprise is mailed to Honolulu, Hawaii, addressed to

Dr. F. E. Clark, and who wrote us this week with instructions to renew his subscription. We also received several copies of some nicely illustrated Hawaiian magazines from Mr. Clark several weeks ago. We wish to herewith extend thanks for both the magazines and the renewal, to our Hawaiian reader, and hasten to wish him a Merry Christmas.

Make the Farm Pay

First of all, the farmer must be a business man.

Farming is manufacturing food and food products and the farm and farm equipment constitute the plant.

Competition is keen and it requires business methods to make money.

The parcels post has opened the way to wider markets. Rural telephones, trolleys and mail delivery have brought unlimited opportunity for doing business.

You need one thing more—

The L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter

Typewriter correspondence will give you a prestige and enable you to get higher prices.

Your son or daughter can learn to operate the L. C. Smith & Bros. typewriter in a short time and incidentally be getting a business education.

Book of instruction free.

Mail this coupon

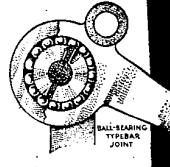

Please send me your free book about typewriters

Name _____

P. O. _____

State _____

To the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter Co.
72 Washington Blvd.,
Detroit, Michigan.

Have you taken advantage of our Club Offers? If not, Do it Now!

LUMBER
SHINGLES, CEMENT
LIME, ROOFING PAPER
HARD and SOFT COAL
CHARCOAL 10C PER SACK
AMOS OTIS

Fred L. Cook & Co.
HARDWARE DEPT.

Furnaces, Ranges, Heating Stoves,
American Fence and Fence Posts,
Builders' Supplies and a
General Line of SHELF GOODS.

Particular Attention paid to Steam Jobs and Plumbing

HOW ABOUT THAT

SUNDAY DINNER

HAVE YOU SELECTED YOUR MEAT YET?

Let me help you with my full line of fancy Meats.

Make my Shop Your Headquarters

H. L. MAAS
Farmington, Mich.

Phone 85