Dr. Jacklin of Detroit, corresponding secretary of the Old People's Home at Chelsea, occupied the pulpit in the Methodist church last Sunday morning.
The races at Walled Lake the first of the week attracted no little excitement and interest in this locality, and several delegations of local sports were in attendance.

Colder weather has been the order during the past few days, and the thermometer has shown no hesitancy in dropping below the zero mark. Predictions for the coming week indicate warmer weather.

A fairly large but attentive audience turned out Sunday evening to hear the third sermon in the series on "The Devil", by the pastor at the Methodist church. The subject for the evening was "The Devil's Poison."

Helen, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cloyes Steele celebrated her seventh birthday at her home Saturday evening. Seven little girls and her teacher, Miss Day, were present and helped her celebrate the occasion.

Rumor has it that Farmington smokers will shortly have an opportunity to patronize home industry and indulge in home made goods, a gentleman whose name we did not learn, having declared his intention of installing a local cigar factory.

Some very attractive and beautiful floral design, were in evidence at the funeral services conducted Thursday afternoon. They were in the most part supplied by the local greenhouses. Mr. Havrane is certainly meeting with excellent success in pleasing a growing list of patrons.

The combination offer for the Detroit Tribune and the Farmington Enterprise, which has been offered for the past two months at the exceptional rate of $2.00 per year for both, is discontinued after tomorrow evening. After that date, the rate for the two automatically returns to $3.50 for both. Subscriptions will be received up until 5 o'clock.

Make the Farm Pay

First of all, the farmer must be a business man.

Farming is manufacturing food and food products and the farm and farm equipment constitute the plant.

Competition is keen and it requires business methods to make money.

The parcels post has opened the way to wider markets. Rural telephones, trolleys and mail delivery have brought unlimited opportunity for doing business.
