Announcement

At the urgent request of, numer ous friends, I herewith announce my candidacy for the office of Vil lage Treasurer on the Republican ticket, subject to the wishes of the village caucus, to be held Thursday, February 25th. Respectfully.

JOHN R. WALTERS.

Don't forget the caucus

Mr. G. Hog evidently missed calculations about five weeks.

The thirty-first annual meeting of the Michigan State Dairymen's Association was held at Flint this

The annual village financial statement is due for publication shortly, the law requiring its publication prior to election.

Sears-Robuck are reported having just declared a big divi-dend amounting to nearly 100 per cent on capitalization. What share young and old, find this reliable of that dividend did you pay? remedy relieves rheumatism, back-What part of that money will ever ache, stiff joints and ills caused by come back into circulation in weak or diseased kidneys or blad

The annual scramble of eligible en in the village getting out of the way of places on the village council is again in vogue.

For the first time in over fifty ears that such a thing has hap pened, the February moon will not get "full" during the entire month, but on the other hand, it done it twice during January. The Prohibition wave is not only ex-tending i four directions, but must have fruck up around Moonville, as will.

Farmer Week will be observed at the Agricultural College, March I to 6. The usual courses are open to all, and the only expense to farmers attending will be for railroad fare to Bast Lansing and Particular attention for board. will be paid to soils and crops, dairying, etc., and special courses n Home Leonomics.

Two till sts will probably be in the field at Redford, says the Record and further, it is just pos-sible that the election may assume sible that the election may assume a "wet and dry" aspect, if some remarks and reports we have heard are true. Northville is, also going to try it out on "home rule" at the coming election, and with Farmington participating in an option fight, it looks like the wets will have to bring up some of their blg Krupps"

The publishers of the Birming ham Eccentric have dug up a new one on the high cost of living. Farmer Jones came to town and bought a daudy 95c beef roast for Sunday diener, paid a dollar and received a nickel change. Arriving home, it missed the roast. Ab ing home, is missed the roast. An sent mind if, of course. He looked in the pocket where he thought he had put the meat and found the nickel, their upon examining further he injesticated his purse and therein found the roast.

drmly refused, and his master cried out in indigration:
"You won't dance, elt? Too much of a gentleman to give us a hornpipel. Mebbe this company isn't swagger enough for the likes of a bloomin' murderer!"
"The charge against me was forgery, sir," quietly replied/fibe man.
"Il don't care what it was. You are insubordiante, and up you go by the thumbe! After hangin' till daylight you'll probably be a little more humble."

ble." The man had been hanging ten min-utes and the agony had almost brought unconsciousness when the door was kicked open and bushrangers crowded in. It was a complete sur-prise. The women screamed out and began to cry, but the men, with the exception of Stebblns, took it rather coolly. The bully and coward went white as death and fell into a chair, and it was almost plifful to bear him beer for his life.
