John Power of this place is named as one of the three trustees, and Fred M. Warner of this place will deliver an address. The banquet will be served at noon, and will be in charge of the ladies of the church where the convention will be held.

A surprise party was given for James Conroy last Saturday evening, in honor of his 69th birthday anniversary. relatives and friends to the number of 65 being present. Mr. Conroy was the recipient of a handsome watch and chain as a token of the occasion. A luncheon was served, a feature of which was a birthday cake trimmed with sweet peas. At a late hour the guests departed, wishing Mr. Conroy many happy returns of the day.

Mr. Craven, proprietor of Farmington's new manufacturing concern, The Invincible Cigar Company, reports business as progressing nicely in the manufacture and distribution of his three new brands of cigars, namely, "The Invincible", "The Nickel 16's" and "Just Right". The cigars are manufactured right here at home, he having established his factory in the quarters formerly occupied as an office by the late W. I. Ely, in the Pierce barber shop building.

Don't forget your taxes Saturday. Last chance.

The Third Annual I. O. O. F. and Rebekah Ball is scheduled for next Friday evening, February 26th, invitations having been issued for the event this week. The committees are numerous and in capable hands, and the indications are that it will not only equal, but surpass all previous annual affairs given. Some secrecy is being maintained over some of the finer arrangements, but certain it is that a good time is in store for all who attend.

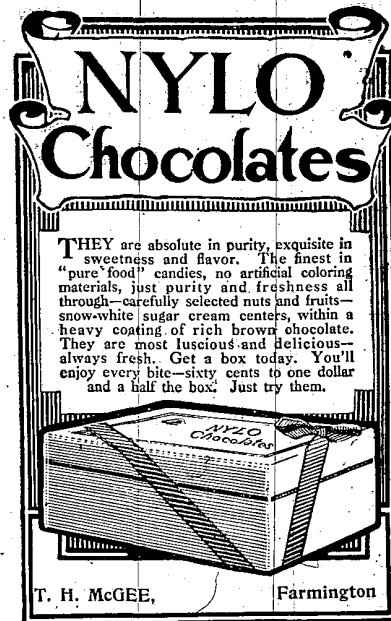

The editor along with the two delegates from this Township attended the Democratic State convention at Lansing Tuesday of this week. It was one of the most harmonious meetings held within the confines of the state, and the auditorium of the huge Masonic Temple was filled to overflowing. Governor Ferris received a great ovation upon entering the hall, and gave a short address preceding the order of business. Candidates for the various offices were unanimously chosen by the convention.

Not long until election now, and it is entering into discussions a little more every day. It is indeed hard to even surmise as yet who will be candidates for the offices of President and the three council vacancies to be filled, in addition to those of clerk and treasurer. B. F. Pierson has declined to be a candidate for the office of village clerk again, and it is also rumored that others who are at present members of the official village body will not ask to have their names placed on the ballots. The caucus call is published in another column and until after that date little of a positive nature as regards candidates can be stated.

Invitations were received the latter part of last week by several young Misses of Farmington and vicinity inviting them to a Valentine surprise party, to be given at the home of Miss Norma McIndoo, near Clareneville, on the evening of Saturday, February 13. The merry party arrived about four o'clock, taking Miss Norma completely by surprise. The rooms were beautifully decorated in pink, in designs suggestive of St. Valentine, as was also the table, on which a three-course dinner was served. The evening hours were happily spent in music and games, and a visit to the Boys' Home, where a moving picture show was enjoyed, was also a delightful feature of the evening.

The new model Fords are beginning to make their appearance in Farmington, and are certainly a classy machine. Carl Ely of the Park Garage brought the first of the new type machines to Farmington last week, and the reception and inspection that it is receiving is an assurance that there will be a big demand for Fords here this season.

An item that was overlooked by the Enterprise last week was the meeting of the local lodge of Macabees, and in view of the fact that it was the first meeting that the order had held in several months, it was, to say the least, an event. A general good time was the order of the evening, which included a repertoire of all the old dances, followed by a sumptuous supper. An excellent attendance and a fine time is reported.
