"DRY" COUNTY AFTER MAY 1ST

n of Attorney General les Local Option Argu-ment—Dry by 26.

The final word has been written in the 1015 Local Option contest in Oakland county and the victory goes to the 'Dry' forces with a majority of 26 ballots, after one of The final word has been written county. The county was declared dry, beginning with May 1st, 1945.

For over two weeks past the matter has been threshed, being alternately officially declared "wet" and "dry". Last week a recount of ballots was started, and con-cluded the fore part of this week. cluded the fore part of this week. The recount materially changed the result, and on the face of it the county went wet by 22. However, many of the ballot boxes had not been properly sealed as re-quired by law, and some evidence was introduced that some of the boxes might have been tampered Prosecutor F. L. Doty, acting on behalf of the Board of Supervisors, on Wednesday morning received a written opinion from the attorney general at Lausing, stat where boxes were not sealed the board of supervisors had no power or authority to go beno power or authority to go be-youd the official count. In other words, a recount could not be made in precincts where boxes had not been sealed.

Only one course was then left to the board of supervisors, as seven-teen precincts were affected by this ruling, and that to formally de-clare the county "dry". This acclare the county "dry". This action was taken unanimously at 2 Harger farm, Farmington. o'clock Wednesday atternoon.

Under this action, all salo throughout the county will close their doors at the customary hour one week from tonight, not to re-open. 35 bars are affected by the order, mostly in hotels.

While the recount figures are of actual value, they are published below, as in comparison with the official table published two weeks
