The Blue Ribbon driving races open in Detroit next Monday afternoon, July 26th and continue for five days, closing Friday, July 30th. The event, always a popular one, will draw the usual large crowd of local enthusiasts, among the most enthusiastic of whom is E. W. Parker, who while experiencing difficulty in getting around owing to his crippled condition, is always eagerly waiting the opening of the meet. The big day will probably be Thursday, when the larger portion of the locals will attend, weather permitting.

Mrs. Fred Pauline was a Detroit visitor Tuesday.

Carl F. Hatton was a Detroit business visitor Saturday.

Miss Edith Ringle visited her sister in Detroit, Tuesday.

New Robe Rails for Ford cars, 75 cents each at Park Garage.

Only one of the autoists recently arrested for speeding remains to appear and receive his fine. He will probably be brought back for trial the fore part of next week. Uniform fines of $25 and costs have been assessed in each case by Justice Thayer.

A heifer belonging to Earl Skarlett was struck by a passing automobile about 1 1/2 miles north of the village last Monday morning, and so badly injured, that she had to be killed. The owner of the car, who is stopping at one of the nearby lakes, offered to return and settle all damages.

A report was telephoned to Farmington late Saturday night that the business section of Royal Oak was in flames. The report proved highly exaggerated, the fire occupying only one building, an oil and gasoline station, but threatened several others adjoining. The fire fighters were badly handicapped by the fact that the pumping plant was temporarily out of order. A chemical truck was rushed over from Highland Park, and made short work of the blaze.
