A Change in Business

I have sold my undertaking business in Farmington to Mr. W. E. Heeneey, of Plymouth, and he will take possession on November 15th.

I can say of Mr. Heeneey, that he is thoroughly competent to take up the work, having worked with me for some time in learning the trade and also taken a course in the M. C. Haley School of Embalming, at Detroit, and has studied and worked with the "New Ideas of Embalming," which I have found to be very successful, being able by their use to keep the remains from one to four weeks if necessary and still have them look natural. Mr. Heeneey will occupy my residence and undertaking rooms, and will keep on hand a stock of from 18 to 20 caskets to select from, not having to take customers to Detroit or select from catalogues a suitable casket.

I would like to see Farmington people patronize Mr. Heeneey when occasion arises for anything in his line, knowing him to be a gentleman, and competent to handle anything you may see fit to give him in the undertaking business.

In selling my business and leaving Farmington to go west, where I expect to teach my "New Ideas of Embalming," I wish to thank the people of Farmington and surrounding country for their patronage and kindness during my residence here, and wish you all happiness and success!

Yours truly,
FRANK F. ZEISSAU.

Local News

Heavy rain in Detroit last Sunday night.

Thanksgiving a week from next Thursday.

Shop early—Christmas only six weeks away.

Patronize the Farmington merchants who advertise.

Miss Tessa Dohany has returned from a visit in Chicago.

Mark Owen was home from Ann Arbor last Friday night.

Miss Ione Chamberlain has returned from her visit at Brantford, Ont.

The Redford Record came to us last week enlarged to an 8-page paper.

Mrs. Frank Owens spent Wednesday with Mrs. Mary Sprague and daughter.

Mrs. L. C. Banks, of Novi, visited a few days with her daughter here recently.

Mrs. William Smith entertained Mrs. Charles Baugher, of Pontiac, one day last week.

Miss Blanche Anglin spent Sunday with Miss Mabel Roediger at East Farmington.

E. C. Grace expects to have his new bowling alleys in operation by Saturday night.

Farmington was victorious in a match game of pool with Redford last Friday night at the latter place.

The annual meeting of the Oakland County W. C. T. U. is being held at Birmingham today and yesterday.

The deer hunting season opened Wednesday, and it is estimated that there are 5,000 Michigan hunters in the north woods.

The annual dinner and supper of the cemetery association has been postponed until on or before the annual meeting in April.

John Mahoney was in Pontiac the latter part of last week, called there by the illness of his brother Lam, who is ill with pneumonia.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church will meet Thursday, Nov. 18th, with Mrs. R. R. Stevenson. Will all the ladies who can be present.

Harry McCracken exhibited some very fine specimens of King apples at McGee's store last week. They were grown on his place northwest of town.

J. P. Bicking, Fred Bicking and Miss Sadie Bicking, of Walled Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Law, of Commerce, visited with relatives in town Friday.

There were 2961 deaths in Michigan during the month of September, and 6,433 births. In Oakland county there were 55 deaths and 93 births during the same period, while in the city of Pontiac there were 33 deaths and 33 births.

An automobile bus, built to resemble a street car passed through here Thursday afternoon on the way to Flint. The car is patterned after the Detroit city cars, with side entrance, pay of you enter arrangement, and will carry about 10 people. It will be used in the jitney business of the latter city.

Why you should trade with firms that advertise: Because advertising moves goods, thus assuring you that the firm that advertises is least likely to have anything old to offer you, even were it so minded. Because the firm that advertises to sell is likely to be just as progressive buying its stock and thus knows how to purchase at a saving for its customers.

Thomas Welfare, a former Farmington township resident, who has been a patient in the Pontiac State Hospital, was released from that institution Saturday on an order of the probate court. His brother, George Welfare, of Novi, was named as probation officer for the petitioner and was obliged to give a bond of $500 that he will prevent his brother from doing any harm. The conditions of the release are that Welfare will not touch intoxicating liquors and will remain in Novi township and not return to Farmington without permission of the court.—Press-Gazette.

Joseph F. Youngs, aged 67, for many years a resident of Avon township, passed away at his home north of this city Wednesday night following a long illness from dropsy. Some time ago he suffered a stroke and had never regained his normal health.—Rochester Clarion.

Mrs. Prudence Beardslee, one of the pioneer women of Independence township, died Monday on the farm to which she was brought a blushing bride some 65 years ago and where she had resided since with the exception of four years time.—Oxford Leader.

A Brighton farmer was brought into court Monday morning for hunting without a license. On pleading guilty he was given the minimum fine, $10 and costs. The new game law is very strict and when the game warden is around it will have to be lived up to. You are liable to arrest if you are even walking across the field with a gun—if the field is not your own, and you don't have a hunter's license. Then, if convicted, the judge must fine you $10 and may fine you $100, together with costs. In addition to this he has the right to give you a jail sentence. A license costs $1.00. It will be cheaper to get one if you want to hunt. It is unlawful to hunt on Sunday on any condition.

An effort is being made to form a local stock company for the purpose of buying the furniture of the Allendorf hotel. Mr. Allen has made a very liberal offer to the persons interested in the proposition, both for the sale of the furniture and for the lease of the building.—Holly Advertiser.

At the trial of Supt. Misener, of Northville, last week, charged with excessive punishment of Chas. Gray, a seventh grade pupil, the superintendent was discharged, as the evidence did not substantiate the charge. The case attracted a large crowd to the courtroom.

At the trial of Benjamin and May Summers, the couple who were caught on October 25th cutting copper wire from the D. U. R. poles, north of this village, last Monday, both pleaded guilty to the larceny of 500 feet of wire, valued at $250. Sentence was deferred for one week.

Went to the Hospital.

C. E. Blanchard, postmaster, Blanchard, Cal., writes: "I had kidney trouble so bad I had to go to the hospital. 'Foley Kidney Pills' completely cured me." Men and women testify they banish lame back, stiff joints, sore muscles and sleep disturbing bladder ailments. T. H. McGee.
