At a meeting of the executive board of the Oakland County Dry Campaign committee, held in the board of commerce rooms, in the city of Pontiac recently, the resignations of Rev. M. J. Sweet as chairman and Al Moore as secretary, were accepted. They remain members of the executive committee, however. J. S. Stockwell, Sr., was elected to the chairmanship and Harry Coleman as secretary. The committee feels that its work will be greatly helped by the addition of these two men on the executive board.

P. W. Parmenter, campaign manager, submitted a report of the work accomplished thus far in organizing the county, and also a statement of subscriptions to the campaign fund. The offices of the committee are at 19 Pythian Block.—Advertisement.

"Prohibition" will be the subject of an address by C. A. Windle of Chicago at the Detroit Armory, Sunday evening, Sept. 17. The meeting is the first in Detroit of the present "wet" and "dry" campaign at which prohibition will be discussed in public. Windle is regarded as the country's leading authority on prohibition, to which he has given years of study. He has spoken on and debated the question in every statewide campaign in the past eight years. He is editor of "Brannan Iconoclast," a Chicago monthly magazine, is a political economist of national reputation and is reputed one of the best public speakers in the United States. The meeting will open at 8 o'clock and is free to the public.—Advertisement.

Prohibition History in Michigan

Back in the late 60's and early 70's there was prohibition all over the state of Michigan. Everything was WIDE OPEN. Any man who could get money to buy a jug of whiskey could sell it as long as there was a drop left—and there was liquor sold the whole 24 hours of the day and night.

It got unbearable, a regular reign of terror, and even the temperance cranks united with the rest of the citizens in Ann Arbor to pass an ordinance to license saloons.

This was gotten around, for there was no mention made of the sale of liquor, simply saloons. The saloon-keepers were put under $300 bonds that their places were to be closed at certain hours.

There was a Mr. Kidson who questioned the validity of this enactment.

The supreme court held that the ordinance was valid and could be enacted even while prohibition was in the state—the ordinance having said nothing regarding the sale of liquor.

I never saw so much drunkenness among students as there was during this prohibition period.

DID YOU KNOW THIS MR. VOTER?

The above statement is one made by Professor Bradley M. Thompson of the Law Department, Ann Arbor. He was citing history, and the Grand Rapids Herald published the above some time ago as an interview with Professor Thompson.

This, then, is what state-wide prohibitionists would lead you into. Beware the pitfall. Listen not to the Higher-Tax siren.
