John McClelland, of Walled Lake, was a Farmington caller Friday.

Little Ruth Biery visited relatives in Northville Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Herman Kreager and daughter, Edna, were in Detroit Tuesday.

Miss Eileen Schroeder and Miss Lucy Howard spent Monday in Pontiac.

Mrs. William Lampman, of Detroit, visited Mrs. Frank Morrow Wednesday.

Mrs. Starr Graham and mother, Mrs. Tolman, were at Clarenceville Wednesday.

Mrs. Elton Randall is convalescing from her recent attack of appendicitis.

Mrs. Tolman has been spending the past few days near Franklin at the Charley Cox home.

Mrs. Roche visited her sister, Mrs. Grace Anglin, at the G. C. Collins home Wednesday.

A. L. Craft, county school commissioner, was in town Wednesday and made the Enterprise a call.

John Thayer and family will spend Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mosher, at Pontiac.

Little Bernadine Shear is recovering from the injury she received, a fractured arm, a couple weeks ago.

Mrs. Hugh Upton and baby were in Pontiac the latter part of the week, the guests of her sister, Mrs. Bert Rice.

Mrs. J. M. Taylor, son and wife, of Lansing, left Wednesday morning, after a week's visit at the David Ross home.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Casper Dobany will be pleased to learn that last week they moved into their new home at Redford, which has just been completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bartlett will entertain as Christmas guests, Mr. and Mrs. Rue Langbecker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Casper Dobany and children and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cox and baby, of Redford.

A box of Holly arrived this week from Bellflower, Cal., sent by Mrs. Herman Goets and by request the recipient, Mrs. David Ross, placed it on the grave of C. F. White, father of the former, who is buried at Oakwood.

Little Roy Sturgis, the eleven-year-old nephew of Mrs. Hugh Upton, who was so seriously injured by an automobile some weeks ago, is slowly convalescing in the hospital at Detroit, but it is not expected he will be able to leave there until after the holidays.

Budd Sheppo, of Andersonville, arrived in Farmington to visit with friends and relatives, and on Tuesday, accompanied by his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Green and son Forest, made a trip to Detroit and were guests of Mr. Green's brother, George Green and family.

Before making your holiday purchases do not fail to read carefully the announcements of Farmington merchants in the advertising columns of the Enterprise. The local merchants have larger and better stocks than ever this year, and the prices are very reasonable in this era of high prices for nearly every thing.
