'No Sex' For Plymouth

amusements

The Plymouth Community Arts Council will open its season Sunday, Nov. 11 with "No Sex Please, We're British," starring Noel Harrison. The original opening attraction, "Untamed Land," starring Jimmy Rodgers, was postponed to Feb. 9. All plays scheduled by the PCAC will be presented in the Plymouth Salem High School auditorium. Season tickets are $12, $15 and $18, available in the Detroit Edison office, Plymouth.

Individual tickets are $4.50, $5.50 and $6.50. Box office hours are Wednesday and Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tickets will also be available at the door.

"No Sex Please, We're British" is about a newly wed couple living over the bank of which Noel Harrison is assistant manager. The young wife decides to supplement the family budget and answers a newspaper "business opportunities" ad. However, the "Swedish Glassware" she sends for turns out to be pornographic postcards. When by mistake, she sends the firm a check, masses of films, books, pictures and more start to arrive at the apartment. The complications increase.

Have Coffee At A Concert

The Detroit Symphony will present the first in a series of five Friday morning concerts Oct. 12 in Ford Auditorium. Each concert is preceded by a continental breakfast and a fashion show. The Farmington Community Center will provide bus transportation to each concert.

Tickets at $4.50 are available in the center. The price includes concert and transportation.
