

Linda Bontly Earns Masters

FARMINGTON
A Farmington woman is among 36 persons who recently received master of science degrees from the University of Wisconsin in Whitewater.

Linda Cox Bontly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Steele Cox Jr. of 3324 Oakland, earned her master's degree in education with a reading specialty. She presently teaches at Monroe Elementary School in Janesville.

A 1965 graduate of Farmington High School, Mrs. Bontly earned a bachelor of arts degree from Western Michigan University.
