'Something Different' Offers Class Variety

A potpourri of popular courses in capsule form will come soon to Plymouth, Farmington and Westland in a new "Do Something Different" program.

The program was designed for the woman interested in getting a little knowledge about a variety of subjects with the idea of more concentrated study later, its originators said.

Barbara Blatz of West Bloomfield, Muriel Kushner of Oak Park and Mary Lou Newlon of Fontaine have put together the program for Do Something Different, Inc., 725 S. Adams, Birmingham.

Fifty subjects, ranging from astrology and ESP through gourmet cooking and handicrafts and bringing in acupuncture, women's lib, travel, belly dancing, hand-writing analysis, creative writing and home gardening.

A selection of eight subjects will be offered in each series, and those registering may choose any six for a course fee of $35.

Classes begin Tuesday, Oct. 2 in Mercy Center in Farmington, Wednesday, Oct. 3 in the Canton High School and Wednesday, Oct. 24 in the Westland Community Center.

Seven other locations in the Detroit suburban area also are included in the opening series.

Registration for the Mercy Center series will be held all day Tuesday, Sept. 25 in the center at 11 Mile and Middle Belt. The Plymouth classes are registering through the adult education program. Westland registration will be Oct. 19 and 20 in the Westland shopping center mall.
