RON STONE

Stone To Head Wayne Alumni

Ron Stone, chairman of Yaffe Stone August, Inc., Southfield, has been elected president of the Wayne State University Alumni Association.

Stone, of Huntington Woods, was a 1950 graduate of Wayne's school of business administration. He has been in the advertising business for more than 23 years and currently serves on the board of directors of the Adcraft Club of Detroit.

"Wayne State University is one of the largest universities in the country and has graduated more than 90,000 students," Stone said. "There are Wayne alumni chapters all over the country with members who graduated from every school in the university and from every walk of life.

"One of the main projects of my administration is to keep graduates informed of what this major university is doing. It is our goal to perpetuate growth and interest in Wayne State."

Also serving on the executive board as secretary of the alumni association is Herschel Fink, attorney, 27655 Pierce, Southfield.

Seminar On Masonry To Be At Lawrence

SOUTHFIELD

The campus of Lawrence Institute of Technology in Southfield will be the site for a seminar on prefabricated masonry panels.

The seminar for architects and engineers will begin at 5 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 25, under the sponsorship of the Masonry Institute of Michigan, Inc., in Farmington.

The registration fee is $12 and reservations can be made through the institute at 27600 Farmington Road, Farmington.

Speakers will include Nathan Levine, architect of Nathan Levine & Assoc., Southfield; William Vetovitz of Vetovitz Masonry Systems, Cleveland; and Gregg Borchelt and G. Forte of Masonry Systems, Inc., Denver and St. Clair Shores.

All have already used masonry panelization techniques in new construction.

Leaders of the seminars include Dr. Earl W. Pellerin of LIT's School of Architecture and John A. Heslip of the Masonry Institute.

Following registration and a reception at the School of Architecture starting at 5 p.m., dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. in the college dining room.

The seminar will run from 8 to 10 p.m. in the auditorium of the Science Building. The campus is located on 10 Mile west of Evergreen.

TORKILD NIELSEN, 36680 Howard, Farmington Hills, has been named vice president and general manager of Warner Vineyards, formerly known as Michigan Wineries Inc. Nielsen, who teaches wine appreciation at Schoolcraft College, was assistant general manager of the Detroit division since joining the company in 1969. A native of Copenhagen, Denmark, Nielsen was formerly general manager of Scandia Restaurants and was general manager of three dining rooms in a major Florida hotel.

OU Offers Computer

ROCHESTER

Several new credit-free computer courses are offered evenings by Oakland University's division of continuing education in the fall term which begins the week of Sept. 24.

The new courses, computing – the state of the art and basic assembly language, supplement the four basic courses required in the diploma program for concentration in computing science. Mathematics, systems and procedures, programming and hardware concepts are basic courses.
