

Commission Director Visits

Patricia Silea, executive director of the Michigan Women's Commission, will address the Livonia League of Women Voters membership tea Thursday, Sept. 27. The tea is scheduled at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Margaret Thomas, 15506 Oak Drive, Livonia.

All women interested in learning more about the league and their own role in political affairs are invited to attend. Call Mrs. Mary Trausch, 15601 Norwich.

Mrs. Silea, a graduate of Oberlin College and Michigan State University, served as legislative secretary to Rep. Philip Mastin and Sen. Sander Levin before assuming her present position.

She also has worked as a high school English teacher and as a child welfare case-worker.

Starr Home Auxiliary Sets Weekend Sale

The Farmington Auxiliary for the Starr Home Commonwealth will sponsor a rummage sale Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 27 to 28, at the home of the organization's president, Mrs. Anita McGinnis of Troy.

The home is located at 2420 Chamwood, and directions are available from the vice president, Mrs. Judy Zahler, 28170 Greythorn, Farmington.

Clothing, toys, games, books and appliances will be available, and funds raised will go to help the program for boys at the Starr Commonwealth campus near Albion.

Women interested in membership may call Mrs. Zahler.

Howes Celebrate 50th

Thirty-nine grandchildren and five great-grandchildren were on hand for the recent 50th wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Howe of Westland.

The party in Roma Hall was hosted by the couple's 10 children. Married in Canada in 1923, the couple celebrated the anniversary Aug. 22 by attending mass in St. Mel Catholic Church in Dearborn Heights.

Redecorate your home in one hour.

A Readybuilt fireplace can be put in any room in your home in less than an hour. They're authentic recreations of styles that range from Louis XV, to Early American, to Contemporary, with matching accessories. Compared to the high cost of building in a wood-burning fireplace (usually more than $1500.00), this is a real value. Each fireplace has the special touch of cast, hand-raised brick or cut stone, real wood mantels, and raised hearths. For extra warmth, and the effect of burning logs, add Readybuilt Gas or Electric logs. Come in today, and choose a fireplace for your home.
