Oakway Auxiliary Meets

The Woman's Association for the Oakway Symphony will meet Thursday, Oct. 25, at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Edward Perou, 16006 Riverside, Livonia.

During the meeting plans will be finalized for the association's role in the first performance of the newly-formed symphony, scheduled Sunday, Oct. 28, at 4 p.m. in Our Lady of Mercy High School, Farmington.

Women in the association are serving as hostesses for intermission and afterglow of each of four concerts, in addition to selling ads for the programs and tickets.

The symphony draws from several communities in this area, including Southfield, Farmington, Birmingham and Livonia, and association memberships also are strong in those areas.

Mrs. Francesco DiBlasi, whose husband is symphony conductor, said the association is actively looking for new members because "we need all the support we can get."

Tickets for the Sunday concert are $2.50, or $1.50 for students, and available at the door. The high school is located at Middle Belt and 11 Mile.

Future concerts will be held in Birmingham Groves High School, Southfield-Lathrup High School and Livonia's Churchill High.
